Senate Orders Arrest At Once Of MacCracken

Former Official's Defiance

MacCRACKEN FAILS TO ATTEND HEARING

Senate To Compel Attendance At Trial On Contempt Charges

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Angered by his defiance, the senate this afternoon ordered the immediate physical arrest of former assistant secretary of commerce William P. MacCracken in order to compel his attendance at a trial for contempt.

The senate's sergeant at arms Chesley W. Jurney was instructed to find MacCracken and "produce his body" at the bar.

This action insured a court battle since Frank J. Hogan, MacCracken's counsel, intimated he would seek a writ of habeas corpus as soon as Jurney attempts to arrest him.

Pending MacCracken's arrest, the senate suspended the contempt trials of three air mail officials cited with him.

Fails To Appear
Washington, Feb. 9.—With former assistant secretary of commerce William P. MacCracken defying it, the senate opened the contempt trial of three air mail officials shortly.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Dear Pa New: Several weeks ago you published in your paper an article about the Forest Department claiming the record of the biggest poison shu-mac cut, but here is some figures of a shu-mac that was cut in the Cunningham park woods Tuesday, that I believe is worth mentioning: fifteen inches across the butt, three foot six inches in diameter and forty one feet high. This is the largest shu-mac that I have ever seen in any woods. And this tree was cut by Mr. Simpson, Mr. Chas. Lynn and Clyde Bruce.

OWEN PENFIELD FOX.

Pa New joins with the rest of the populace of New Castle and Lawrence county in hoping that the cold breeze which has been wafting down from Hudson Bay, will turn around and come back up from the Gulf of Mexico.

Pa New overheard a man calling over to his neighbor this morning and telling him that his water meter had frozen up and burst.

Thursday afternoon, a man was observed chopping the ice away from the front of his radiator so he could insert the crank to crank the engine. Icicles, several inches long had formed.

All one could hear on the street cars last night and today was, "How cold it is at your house?" Pa New heard one citizen say it was about 32 below in the country district.

No less an authority than B. F. Johnson, U. S. Weather Observer, asserts that the sun was hot yesterday (in places). He states that there is a sheltered spot in the road.

Maximum temperature, 10.
Minimum temperature, 17 (below zero).
Precipitation, trace.
River stage, 4.5 feet.

Statistics for the same date a year ago follow:
Maximum temperature, 26.
Minimum temperature, 1.
Precipitation, .07 inches.

NEW YORK EXPERIENCES COLDEST DAY ON RECORD

(International News Service)
Bitterly cold weather, bringing New York City its most frigid day on record, riveted the mercury down to points far below zero over wide areas of the United States today.

New York City's own low mark of 14.3 degrees below zero, the official mark, brought misery and suffering to millions, handicapped river and harbor shipping, delayed railway and street transportation and taxed the relief facilities of the Metropolitan to the utmost.

One Report 58 Below.
Northern New York state, New England points and the Maritime Provinces of Canada suffered severely. Frost Point, N. Y., an Adirondack town aptly named in the circumstances, grabbed off early records with a thermometer reading of 58 below zero.

Auburn, N. Y., had 34 below and Olean, N. Y., 36 below. Halifax, N. S., reported temperatures ranging between 5 and 35 below zero.

Six persons died in Boston. Harbors and bays along the New England coast were solid masses of ice. New York's broad harbor was clogged with miniature icebergs.

All overland trains arriving in New York were from two to four hours late. The Twentieth Century, historic for punctuality, steamed in an hour and 45 minutes behind time.

Fires, explosion of overheated stoves and boilers and traffic accidents occurred in the wake of the cold wave.

Officials Launch Hunt For Gang Of Bremer Kidnapers

Believe 10 To 14 Were Concerned In Kidnaping Of St. Paul Banker

TWO HUNDRED U. S. MEN ON JOB

Extensive Man-Hunt Under Way To Get Abductors Who Got $200,000

(International News Service)
ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 9.—Edward G. Bremer, his freedom regained through payment of $200,000 ransom after 22 days of captivity, today earnestly co-operated with federal, state and St. Paul authorities in a combined manhunt for his kidnapers.

Although still shaken and nervous from his ordeal, the wealthy banker recounted to federal department of justice agents the details of his abduction, the ride to the kidnapers' hideout and his release from a small coupe in Rochester, Minn., late Wednesday night.

Bremer gave repeated accounts of significant interludes of his three weeks absence to Werner Hanni, in charge of the federal bureau of investigation here, and other federal operatives.

On the basis of Bremer's detailed story, department of justice agents and detectives centered their search today for the kidnapers' hideout in Kansas City and in Sioux City, Ia.

Bremer still remained in the seclusion of his home.

Deny Chaplin Is Married To Young Actress

Paulette Goddard, Slated To Be New Leading Lady For Chaplin

(International News Service)
HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Feb. 9.—The "leading lady" dressing room at the Charlie Chaplin movie studio has been completely refurbished for a new occupant.

And Hollywood, recalling that two of the heroines who played opposite the master comedian became Mrs. Charles Spencer Chaplin today was asking if history will repeat itself.

The slender, beautiful actress for whom the dressing room has been done over in blue and grey and peach is Paulette Goddard, already designated as the heroine of Chaplin's next picture.

Rumor has it that the two have been married secretly, but this is stoutly denied.

"I'm sure Mr. Chaplin won't be married at least until his picture is finished," said Alfred Reeves, his close friend and business manager.

Sankey's Widow Is Grief Shaken By His Suicide

Mrs. Verne Sankey Weeps Continuously Over Suicide Of Desperado

SANKEY ENDS LIFE BY HANGING IN CELL

Was To Have Entered Plea In Kidnaping Cases But Chose Death

(International News Service)
SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Feb. 9.—Grief-shaken and weeping continuously in her jail cell, Mrs. Verne Sankey today was on the point of a breakdown with the suicide of her desperado husband, confessed kidnaper of Chas. T. Boettcher, II. Sankey chose death rather than imprisonment for life.

Under indictment for the same kidnapping and confined in the county jail here, Mrs. Sankey cried hysterically when authorities told her "Verne is dead." She took it "plenty bad" guards said.

Sankey committed suicide in his solitary confinement cell in the state penitentiary last night by hanging himself from a cross bar with a necktie.

Pal Is Unconcerned
Stolid, unperturbed and radiating an air of unconcern, was Gordon Alcorn, indicted with the Sankeys in the $60,000 ransom abduction of Boettcher. Alcorn, occupying a cell adjoining Sankey's merely shrugged his shoulders as the gangster's body was taken away to a mortuary.

Mrs. Sankey was true to her pledge of loyalty to her late husband. Only two days ago she told the federal officers she would "stick to Verne to the last even though he had another sweetheart in Helen Mattern." Miss Mattern was the girl who was living with Sankey when he was arrested last week in Chicago.

Chooses Death
SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Feb. 9.—Verne Sankey, branded as "America's public enemy No. 1" while a suspect in the kidnapping murder of Charles A. Lindbergh Jr., today had chosen death by his own hand rather than face life imprisonment for the kidnapping of Charles A. Boettcher II of Denver.

Scheduled to be arraigned today for the $60,000 ransom abduction of the Denver millionaire, Sankey hanged himself in his solitary confinement cell at the state penitentiary here last night.

Sankey brought his career as a desperado to a close.

City To Ask County For Protection Against Bridge Damage Suits

Council met today in City Hall and adopted a motion instructing the city solicitor to communicate with the commissioners of Lawrence county relative to the county protecting the city of New Castle from possible lawsuits growing out of accidents at the West Washington street bridge which spans the Shenango river.

The motion was presented by Director of Safety Davies.

When council met in formal session John U. Baer presented a bill for $157 for damages to an automobile. His car struck the bridge February 2.

"I believe it would be a good thing if someone would sue us and make the commissioners take out the bridge," said Solicitor White when asked for his opinion.

"Wouldn't it be better for us to ask the county commissioners to protect us, or we will close the bridge?" inquired Mayor Mayne.

"I believe that would be best," Safety Director Davies declared.

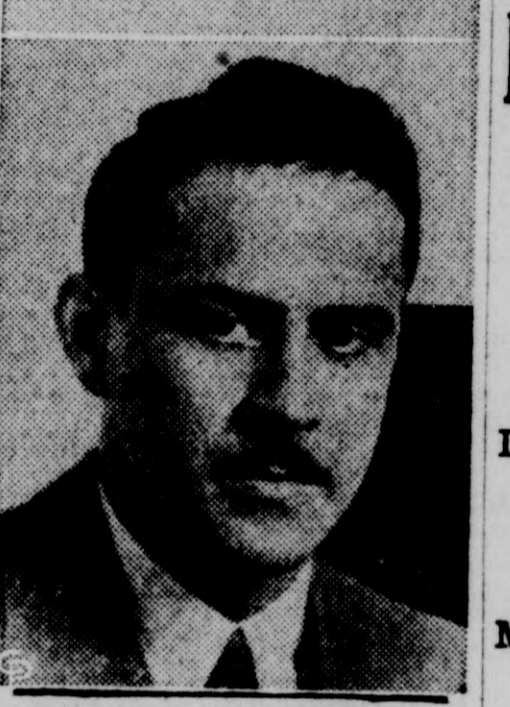

"The bridge is a monstrosity," exclaimed the mayor.

Pass Motion
Director Davies then introduced a motion, which passed, instructing the city solicitor to communicate with the county commissioners asking the county to protect the city from possible lawsuits as the result of automobile accidents at the bridge.

"This is a good time to do this. Tomorrow may be too late," remarked Davies.

Legal Battle Being Fought In Dean Case

Defense Counsel Contends Records Show Dr. Kennedy Died Of Overdose Of Opiates

HOSPITAL RECORDS ENTER ARGUMENT

By WILLIAM G. GAUDET
International News Service Staff Correspondent

GREENWOOD, Miss., Feb. 9.—A bitter legal battle loomed today in the trial of Dr. Sara Ruth Dean for the murder of her alleged sweetheart, Dr. J. Preston Kennedy, as defense counsel prepared to force the state to introduce hospital records covering the period in which Dr. Kennedy lay ill in Baptist hospital, Jackson.

A. F. Gardner, chief counsel, has declared that these records undeniably show Preston died from an overdose of opiates used to counteract an excessive amount of liquor he had been drinking. The state has stubbornly fought the defense on this point.

Strong Arguments.
They insist such records come under "privileged communications" and hence are not subject to the searching eye of a court investigation.

Again and again the defense has returned to the "money motive" theme, seeking to prove that the prosecution of Dr. Dean is actuated by a double indemnity clause in the deceased physician's insurance policy which would be collectable if murder were proved.

Preston's dentist-brother, Dr. Henry Kennedy, today was to be questioned particularly on Preston's financial condition at the time of his death.

Water Pipes Freeze In County Jail

Frozen water pipes in the county jail necessitated the services of plumbers this morning. The pipes were frozen in the vicinity of the air shaft. Difficulty was also experienced in keeping the jail warm last night. In the various offices in the court house regular temperatures were being maintained.

McKean County Reports Temperature 40 Below; State In Artic Grip

(International News Service)
All Pennsylvania shivered today as the icy grip of a Hudson Bay cold wave swept into a region of Arctic-like temperatures of sub-zero weather.

In every section of the state temperatures below the zero mark were recorded as stamping feet and slapping hands beat an irregular tattoo of suffering.

Death slashed into the state, taking at least four deaths, two from exposure.

Reports 40 Below.
Holding its lead as the "ice-box" of the state, McKean county reported an unofficial low of 40 degrees below zero, with an official record of 38 below.

Doumergue Completing Cabinet He Hopes Will Satisfy French

MARSHAL PETAIN WAR MINISTER

New Government May Be In Full Operation By Tonight

By WILLIAM PARKER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PARIS, Feb. 9.—The cabinet which is expected to lead France out of her political morass back to the safe road of governmental stability, was tentatively completed shortly after noon today by Premier Gaston Doumergue.

The premier then took immediate steps to avert the general strike which looms as the first menace to the successful launching of the new government.

He summoned Leon Jouhaux, secretary-general of the confederation of Labor and urged him to call off the strike, scheduled for Monday if the strike is not averted, approximately.

Cold Records For Many Years Are Exceeded

Temperature Reports From Lawrence County Range From 14 To 32 Below

SEE MODERATION BY SATURDAY

New Bedford, Mt. Jackson And East Brook Have Coldest Weather

Old settlers are dusting off their reminiscences today, and endeavoring to remember when it was colder than the weather of last night and early this morning. At noon today the "good old days" boys were still muttering in their beards for the only temperatures comparable to the last ten hours in this county were back in 1912, or 1918.

From a checkup made by The News early today New Bedford was the coldest spot in the county with 32 degrees below zero.

In case you are thawed out sufficiently to read temperatures, take a look at some of these. And remember this is not the score in Little America. It is Lawrence County, Pennsylvania, A. D. 1934:

New Bedford, 32 below.
Eastbrook, 30 below.
Hickory township, 30 below.
Mt. Jackson, 30 below.
Butler Road, 22 below.
East Side, 22 below.
North Hill, 20 below.

Without any question the weather Thursday night was the coldest in this county in the past twenty years. Starting at five in the afternoon the temperature kept dropping steadily and at midnight the downtown streets saw a host of automobiles.

Name Bauman To Recreation Board

Attorney Roy Hazen Resigns As Member Of Recreation Board

Albert Bauman, public school director and a member of the athletic council, today was appointed by city council to serve five years as a member of the city recreation board, to succeed School Director Roy Hazen who resigned. The name of Mr. Bauman was offered by Mayor Mayne following a suggestion by Director of Parks Joseph D. Alexander at council's session in city hall.

Director of Safety D. O. Davies said that the council regretted the resignation of Attorney Hazen who served faithfully as a recreation board member. Press of school business caused him to resign, Hazen's letter to council today said.

Arthur Mometer

Don't talk to me of the good old days when the mercury hit the chutes, and people slept in their woolen shirts and their overalls and their boots. Don't make me laugh of those days of yore when the weather was so and so. For last night handed us one for the book, it went to thirty below. And woolen socks felt like lacy strips, and overcoats all too tight, for the good old days are a dim thing now, after what we went through last night. The pipes were stiff and the gear shifts stuck, and the coal did a snappy hey hey and now we can talk of it years to come, it's up, six above today.

while Philadelphia reported one man dead from exposure when thermometers dropped to a similar mark, smashing all records of the weather bureau at that point.

Two Deaths.

Two deaths were recorded in the Altoona district as the result of accidents from the cold. James Wagner, 23, amateur boxer, met death in an auto accident, while George Elright stepped into the path of a Pennsylvania railroad train as it pulled out of the Altoona station.

Fires were frequent in all sections, three women were burned, one seriously, in a blaze which swept the homes of William Bernot and Mike Braghi at Export, 14 miles northwest of Greensburg.

Ice breakers were opening the way for Philadelphia-Camden ferries today as the Delaware river was frozen solid from bank to bank. The Schuylkill river was also blocked.

Rivers Frozen Solidly.

At Pittsburgh and vicinity, movements on the Ohio, Allegheny and Monongahela rivers were completely paralyzed as the three rivers froze solidly for the first time in more than two decades.

Homeless and poor families suffered intensely as the cold wave descended in all its chilling fury. Homeless jammed shelters in all sections of the state while relief agencies were swamped with requests for additional fuel.

No relief within the next 24 hours has been sighted, the cold wave still centering over Pennsylvania. The high pressure area extends from northern Ontario to near the South Carolina-Tennessee border.

mately 1,200,000 workmen will leave their jobs.

Jothaux, however, remained adamant in the face of Doumergue's appeal and prospects are that the cabinet will be carried out.

But to prevent possible disturbances tonight the prefecture of police banned a Communist demonstration which was to have been held in the Place de la Republique.

Subject to possible revision, the Doumergue cabinet will line up as follows:

Minister of Foreign Affairs—Former Premier Louis Barthou.

Minister of Public Works—Pierre Etienne Flandin.

Economy—Former Premier Edouard Herriot.

Finance—Louis Germain-Martin.

Interior—Former Premier Albert Sarraut.

Colonies—Former Premier Pierre Laval.

Air—General Denain.

War—Marshal Henri Petain.

Navy—Former Premier Andre Tardieu.

Justice—Henry Cheron.

Labor—Louis Marin.

Public Health—Ardien Marquet.

Marshal Petain, war-time commander-in-chief of French armies, already has accepted the post of war minister.

It was expected that others designated would accept and that Premier Doumergue would have his government fully organized and in operation by tonight.

The cabinet as drawn represents almost every shade of political activity in France and is almost a directory of the "strong men" of the nation, with five former premiers holding important posts.

Official 14 Below

The official temperature at the water works according to the weather man out there was only 17 below, but it may be that this thermometer was somewhat sheltered. Either that or Eastbrook, New Bedford and Mt. Jackson were specially honored by King Winter.

Water pipes froze, automobiles stalled, and many citizens stayed up most of the night feeding the furnace. It was a record breaker with all parts of the county reporting new lows.

At noon today the weather was moderating. The mercury had come up for air and sunshine and was headed above the zero line. The forecast was continued cold tonight, with the Hudson Bay weather moderating Saturday.

One reason why B. O. cures fail is because the bottle doesn't contain enough to soak garments in.

leading from the Water Works to West Leasure avenue, and that the sun yesterday actually melted the ice in the road, causing the roadway to be muddy.

David H. Davis, of 806½ West Washington street, has received No. 87 on his state bonus application, which is possibly the lowest of any in the county. Davis' application was made on February 1.

Young Pa Newc saw a local resident walking briskly down the court house hill today, wearing a pair of "sport model" ear muffs. A wire behind the man's head held the muffs to the ears.

A local doctor didn't seem to mind the cold weather this morning. The person in question was walking on Winter avenue this morning, whistling a popular tune.

At 9:30 o'clock this morning a thermometer in front of the County Commissioners office at the court house registered 3 degrees below.

Thermometers at some homes in the city clung tenaciously to zero throughout the day, Thursday.

The record cold wave of this morning recalls world war times. The winter of 1917-1918 is the last winter in which anything like the arctic blasts of the present time were experienced.

Many an auto gave a few grunts and refused to start this morning, Pa Newc is informed.

The letter carriers, particularly on a day like this, try to keep away from thermometers—no matter how hard they try, though, it just can't be done. One postman said every one, or a good many, hang their thermometers right beside the mail box.

In spite of last night's extreme low temperatures there are still spots in Neshannock Creek, which have not yet frozen over, Pa Newc noted at noon today.

The cold weather has caused considerable damage to motor cars. Pa Newc observed a machine parked on South Mercer street this morning, whose crank case had burst, allowing the oil to drain out into the street.

One had little trouble finding a parking space on the downtown streets today. This morning, there were only two cars parked between Washington and Park streets, it was noted.

Alderman C. H. P. Green did his best to forget the cold this morning by carrying around a newspaper story which he clipped from a paper last June—the story told of the sudden cold spell which sent the mercury at the World's Fair from 100 to a few hours. The first part of it, the part about how Old Sol sizzled the Chicago streets just before the drop, was comforting. Pa Newc read it over twice.

And do you know that man who carried a bucket of ice up East Washington street today seemed so at ease.

clusion of his home on the advice of Dr. Joseph Sprafka, who described the victim's condition as "extremely nervous." Two wounds on the kidnappers' heads, inflicted by the abductors January 17 when he tried to escape his captors, were virtually healed, however.

Perhaps 14 In Gang
His kidnappers numbered at least ten men and perhaps fourteen, Bremer told his questioners he judged from the sounds of their voices while he was a prisoner. Several of these were in the gang that seized him in his automobile on the morning of January 17.

The gang maintained a constant guard over their victim in a darkened room, he said, and snatches of whispered conversation came to him from an adjoining chamber as the kidnappers occasionally discussed their problems.

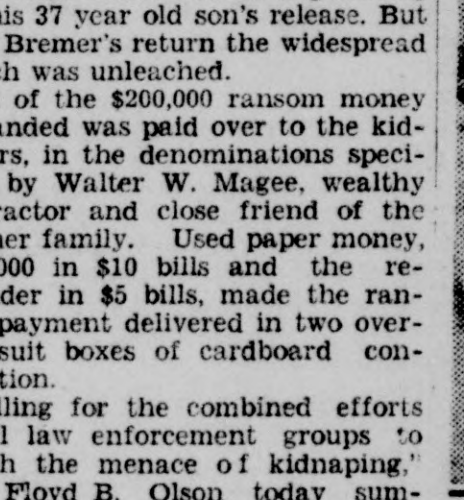

With all restraint lifted from the investigation, the federal department of justice force swung rapidly into the manhunt, leading a combined force of state and city police that numbered in all nearly 200 men. Until Bremer returned home authorities had heeded the request of his aged father, Adolph Bremer, wealthy brewer and a personal friend of President Roosevelt, to allow him a lone hand in negotiating for his 37 year old son's release. But with Bremer's return the widespread search was unleashed.

All of the $200,000 ransom money demanded was paid over to the kidnappers, in the denominations specified, by Walter W. Magee, wealthy contractor and close friend of the Bremer family. Used paper money, $115,000 in $10 bills and the remainder in $5 bills, made the ransom payment delivered in two oversized suit boxes of cardboard construction.

Calling for the combined efforts of all law enforcement groups to "crush the menace of kidnapping," Gov. Floyd B. Olson today summoned an executive meeting of all peace officers at his offices tomorrow at which a strategic campaign was scheduled to be outlined and set in motion.

"Unless this kidnapping is put down, it will grow to such an extent that no one will be safe and we will live under a condition worse than under the rule of tyrants," the governor declared.

Deaths of the Day

U. S. G. Anderson Funeral.

Funeral services for U. S. Grant Anderson, Highland avenue extension, R. D. 5, were held Thursday afternoon from the Epworth Methodist church at 2:30 with the pastor, Dr. J. A. Galbraith, officiating, assisted by Dr. H. C. Weaver, a former pastor.

Mrs. Dan McCreary and Mrs. J. Bovard sang "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Blessed Assurance", specially favored hymns of the deceased. He was a member of the Men's Bible class and active in all church work for the past 38 years. He was highly esteemed by a host of friends and business associates, as the gorgeous floral tributes and large attendance at the last rites indicated.

Interment was made in Oak Park cemetery. Pallbearers were R. H. McCann, Frank P. Andrews, C. C. Campbell, Claude McMichels, Robert Gibson and James P. Dunkerly.

Lohman Lohr Funeral.

This morning at 9 o'clock the funeral party of Lohman Lohr, West Park way, left for Johnston, where funeral services and interment will take place Monday.

G. W. Moody Funeral.

Funeral services for George W. Moody were held Thursday afternoon from the home, Highland avenue, with Dr. N. A. White of the First Methodist church and Dr. W. E. McClure of the First Presbyterian church officiating.

The home was filled with friends and relatives to say their last farewell to one who had rounded out a ripe old age, and the gorgeousness of the flowers attested to the esteem in which he was held.

Interment was made in Greenwood cemetery. Pallbearers were John Emery, Walter S. Reynolds, Archie Gordon, Jesse Moore, Charles Davis and P. K. Pike.

Mrs. Arlene Peterson Moyer.

Mrs. Arlene Peterson Moyer, aged 26, wife of Raymond L. Moyer, of 262 So. Scott street, died in the Jameson Memorial hospital this morning at 5:00 o'clock after a short illness.

Mrs. Moyer was born in Greenville, Pa., on May 2, 1908, and was the daughter of Dexter and Jennie Christy Peterson. She had a large number of friends and her departure at such a youthful age comes as a great shock to those and all who knew her.

She was married to Raymond L. Moyer five years ago and to the couple were born two children, Correne and Raymond, Jr. The family moved to New Castle four years ago. Mrs. Moyer was a member of the St. Johns church.

Surviving is her mother, Mrs. Jennie Peterson, of Jamestown, Pa., her husband, and two children, at home. Brother, Alfred Peterson, of Jamestown, Pa., and her grandmothers, Mrs. Susy Peterson, of Greenville, Pa.

Funeral services will be conducted Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock from the late residence, 102 South Scott street, with Rev. O. E. Winger, Methodist minister from Jamestown, Pa., in charge.

Until Saturday morning at 10:00 o'clock the body will be at the Book-Leyde Mortuary.

Interment will be made in Park Lawn cemetery, Jamestown, Pa.

William J. Asher.

William J. Asher, aged 69, of 918 Warren avenue, passed away in the Jameson Memorial hospital at 8:45 p. m. Thursday after an illness of four days with pneumonia.

Mr. Asher was born in Allegheny county, Pennsylvania, on September 25, 1865, the son of Conrad and Barbara Weaver Asher. He was single, resided for the past 11 years in New Castle, and attended the Christian Missionary and Alliance church of which he was a member.

Surviving him are the following sisters: Mrs. Anna Lentz, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Mary Clark, of Pittsburgh; Misses Margaret and Sophia, at home; and brothers, Phillip Asher, of Tablerock, Neb.; and C. H. Asher, of Ellwood City.

Funeral services will be conducted from the residence on Monday, February 12, at 2:00 p. m., with Rev. Clarence F. Westover in charge. The body will be at the Book-Leyde Mortuary until Saturday afternoon.

Johnston-Smith Are Convicted At Cleveland, O.

Grand Chief Engineer Of Locomotive Brotherhood And Former Bank President Guilty

(International News Service)
CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 9.—Gray-haired, scholarly looking Alan Johnston, grand chief engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, today was convicted of misapplication of funds of a bank where he served as director.

C. Stirling Smith, former president of the Standard Trust bank, also was convicted by the jury of nine men and three women. James Cassell, secretary-treasurer of the brotherhood and also an ex-director of the bank, was acquitted.

Sankey's Widow IS GRIEF SHAKEN BY HIS SUICIDE

gambler, bootlegger and notorious kidnaper to a sudden end by fashioning a noose from his cheap necktie. He fastened the necktie to an upper cross—4 in his cell looped it about his neck and jumped off the cell cot.

Dead From Strangulation
Dr. W. Keller, penitentiary physician, pronounced the Dakota badman dead from strangulation produced both by the hanging and by the handkerchief he stuffed down his throat to prevent his guards hearing any sound.

The two federal guards assigned to watch over the prisoner had turned their backs on Sankey for only five minutes. When the pair, A. B. Neely and Frank Gilmore, returned they found the desperado's body swinging from a cross-bar.

Upon his capture in a barber chair last week in Chicago Sankey was subjected to a severe grilling by federal department of justice agents as a suspect in the Lindbergh baby kidnapping, but he steadfastly denied any connection with the crime. He had confessed, however, to the kidnapping of Boettcher and of Haskell Bohn, son of the wealthy St. Paul, Minn., refrigerator manufacturer.

Alcorn's Request Ruse?
Held in an adjoining cell in solitary confinement was Gordon Alcorn, reputed chief lieutenant of Sankey and likewise facing trial for the Boettcher kidnapping. One of the guards had left to get some headache tablets for Alcorn when Sankey carried out his plan of self destruction. It was held probable that Alcorn's request was only a ruse.

Sankey and Alcorn were to have entered a plea today before Judge A. Lee Wyman, Byron S. Payne, assistant United States district attorney, said Alcorn will definitely plead guilty. Payne said the prisoner would be sentenced immediately if a guilty plea is entered.

Sankey had appeared morose a few hours before his suicide, and asked if he could talk to his wife who is a prisoner in the Minneapolis county jail awaiting trial in the Boettcher abduction.

When informed of her husband's suicide, Mrs. Sankey broke down and cried bitterly, guards said.

Code "Chisellers" Will Be Checked In Pennsylvania

State-Wide Drive Against Chisellers Will Be Launched, Agents To Check Up

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 9.—A statewide drive against N. R. A. code "chisellers" will be launched within a few days, according to an announcement today by Edward N. Jones, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania Director of the National Emergency Council, newly created federal recovery agency.

A corps of field adjusters will be sent into every industrial section of the commonwealth to check reports of violations and wherever possible effect settlement between workers and employers.

"The drive against chislers" Jones said, "would be directed chiefly at Philadelphia employers because of numerous complaints of code violations."

Jones also announced the appointment of Lewis G. Hines, official representative of the American Federation of Labor, and John Bromley, president of a Philadelphia hosiery company, as members of the state adjustment board. Both will serve without pay. A third member is to be selected.

TUREEN DINNER HONORS BIRTHDAY

Complimenting Mrs. Essie McCurdy of Leasure avenue, whose birthday occurred Thursday, was a tureen luncheon held yesterday in the home of Miss Ada Newlon on Grant street.

Guests were members of Miss Newlon's Sunday school class of the First M. E. church, numbering 12. The table was attractive with Valentine suggestions and a pretty color scheme of red and white was carried throughout appointments and in the very delicious menu which was served with the aid of Mrs. Ray Robison.

An election of officers featured a business session later. Mrs. J. L. Bradley was named president, Mrs. Nellie Brooks, secretary and Miss Elzina Spencer treasurer.

The social period was spent informally with many good wishes being extended the honored guest.

Mahoning Book Club.

Mrs. E. F. Toepfer of Hazelcroft avenue was hostess to the Mahoning Book club at an afternoon luncheon Thursday.

Nine members were present and enjoyed the afternoon informally. A delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Toepfer, assisted by Miss Rebecca Bowden.

Special guests were Miss Bowden and Mrs. H. H. Beck.

In two weeks the club will meet with Mrs. W. C. Mechem, Miller avenue.

E. M. M. Club.

Mrs. Louis Helesko entertained the E. M. M. club Thursday evening at her new address on Finch street.

Five hundred was the pastime with Mrs. Romeo Beltram, Miss Norma Beltram and Mrs. Warren Van Horn winning the prizes. Miss Lillian Myler assisted her sister with lunch.

The next meeting will be February 22, with Mrs. Margaret Sager of Jackson avenue.

Colonial Club

Sewing and cards were the principal diversions of interest to Colonial club members who assembled Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Edward Terrell, on Home St., with Mrs. Pat Audino winning the card favor.

Adjourning, the club decided to meet February 22, with Miss Diana Metta of Oak street.

YOUNG PEOPLE HAVE SURPRISE PARTY

A surprise party Thursday evening in the home of Miss Betty Johnson, 412 East Leasure avenue, paid a compliment to Frank E. Byers, whose birthday occurred yesterday.

The young people had a happy time dancing and playing bridge, and concluding the latter contests, pretty favors were won by Miss Ann Montgomery, Edward Smith, Bud Wagner and Elsie May Morgan.

At a late hour a buffet lunch was served, the hostess' mother, Mrs. Carl S. Johnson, Miss Montgomery and Miss Jackson aiding.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kurtz, Jr., Mrs. D. W. Byers, Misses Anne Montgomery and Jean Jackson. Others included: Misses Gertrude Falls, Dorothy Weyant, Mary Anne Mellinger, Lois Perdue, Elsie May Morgan, Betty Johnson, Messrs Edward Smith, Jr., Pen McIninger, Jr., Mervyn Johns, Elmer O'Neill, Bud Wagner and Frank Byers.

SOCIAL EVENTS AT WESTMINSTER

Two social events are scheduled for today at Westminster College. The Campus Club, composed of wives of faculty members and women members of the faculty, will be guests of Mrs. H. R. Patton on Washington street this afternoon at a tea. Kappa Delta sorority will hold a theatre party in New Castle tonight.

Tuesday afternoon teas will resume in Browne hall on Feb. 13, Dean Mary E. Turner announces. The members of the student council will be hosts at this informal gathering to which students and faculty are invited. The tea is from 4 to 5 P. M. The following week, Feb. 20, the W. A. A. will have charge of the tea, the senior members pouring.

CARD CLUB HAS REGULAR SESSION

Assembling Thursday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Fritz on Fairmount avenue, 1934 club associates spent enjoyable hours playing cards.

There were four tables used for the 500 games, concluding which attractive favors were awarded Mrs. Clyde Stevens, Mrs. Arthur Kiefer, Arthur Kiefer and Charles C. Andrews.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Belknap were visitors sharing the evening's entertainment. At a late hour a delicious lunch was served, Mrs. Harry Finner assisting. Valentine colors predominated in appointments.

The next meeting will be Saturday February 24, with Mr. and Mrs. George Owens on Garfield avenue.

Amerita Club

Several special guests, Mrs. A. Aquaviva, Mrs. Charles Christopher and Miss Rose Clause were visitors at the meeting of the Amerita club Thursday evening with Mrs. Mario Trabotto of West Grant street.

Cards and other games were pastimes which made the hours pass quickly with Mrs. Charles Christopher and Mrs. Joseph Letta holding high scores.

At an appropriate time a dainty lunch was served with Valentine colors and favors lending attractiveness to the menu.

The next meeting will be in two weeks with Mrs. Nicholas George on East Lutton street.

Misfit Club.

Wednesday evening, Mrs. Lew Sweet of North street was hostess to the members of the Misfit club at their monthly meeting in her home.

At this time plans were completed for several plays to be given at a later date.

At an appropriate hour a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Horne.

L. D. K. SOCIETY ANNUAL BANQUET

The annual banquet and yearly meeting of the L. D. K. society of the Third U. P. church took place Thursday evening in the dining room of the church with a delicious menu served at 6:30 at tables artfully suggestive of St. Valentine.

The committee on arrangements included Ruth Gibson, Mabel Kocher, Ethel Kline, Alice Rapson, Helen Book and Carolyn Lawton.

Katherine Hopper acted as toastmistress. Mrs. S. B. Copeland was the speaker of the evening, talking on a missionary subject. Helen Kyle gave a reading. Betty Uber had a solo, accompanied by Viola Dufford. Effie Smock had a monologue. Mabel Huffman conducted the mission study period.

An election of officers resulted in Mrs. Marie Burdette being named president; Mabel Huffman, vice president; Carolyn Lawton, secretary; Josephine Thompson, treasurer; Katherine Hopper, thank offering secretary, and Helen Book, temperance secretary.

March 8 the society will meet at the home of Esther Kline, 939 Bedford street, with a white elephant party featuring the event.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR R. M. COPPER

A number of rural carriers with Postmaster Richard A. Steen, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Copper at Princeton and tendered Mr. Copper a pleasant surprise in honor of his birthday and corner service as temporary carrier on R. F. D. 2.

The evening was spent informally with games, music and singing and reminiscences of days spent together.

Later in the evening, a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Copper assisted by Mrs. George Brown and daughters. Featuring, was a presentation speech made by Postmaster Steen and the bestowing of very handsome gifts. Mr. Copper responded in a fitting manner.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Steen, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Richael and daughters, Mildred, Berne and Doris, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Davidson, son Jimmie and daughter Esther, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson, Charles McCandless, Curtis Reno and son Clark, all of New Castle; Mr. and Mrs. George Brown and children, Florence, Blanche, Walter, Albert and Clinton of Ellwood; Edna, George and Clyde, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Copper and children, Gerald, Dale, Catherine, Jennie, Shirley and Ralph, Jr., all of near Princeton.

NORTH HILL CLUB AT RIGBY RESIDENCE

Mrs. E. E. Buschman of Butler was an out of town guest Thursday at the meeting of the North Hill club in the Lincoln avenue home of Mrs. George A. Rigby.

There were twelve present and following the customary book exchange, hours were devoted to a game of contract.

On Wednesday, February 21, Mrs. H. A. Wilkison will entertain at her home on Park avenue.

Class Party.

Members of the Workers Together class, of the Croton M. E. Sunday school, taught by Mrs. Charles E. Allen, had a Valentine tureen dinner in the church dining room, on Thursday evening with the husbands and friends of the girls as guests. Places were laid for 28 at one large table. A color scheme of red and white was carried out in the appointments, suggestive of the Valentine season.

Following the dinner, a humorous debate was staged, those taking part being Elizabeth Reynolds, Lily Belle Hill, Jemima Shuler, Charles Campbell, Charles Allen and Louis West, with Roy Bales, Jean DeGarmo and Mary Scott as judges.

Various games were played during the remainder of the evening, awards going to Marion White, Jemima Shuler, Charles Wright and Charles Campbell.

The committee for the party was composed of Mrs. Edwin G. Milliken and the Misses Sara Sheehy, Elizabeth Reynolds, Jean DeGarmo and Twila Truxal.

T. M. T. Club.

Miss Nora Campolia of East Home street, was a delightful hostess to the members of the T. M. T. club in her home Wednesday evening at eight.

Chat, radio music and cards were the diversions of the evening, with the 500 prizes going to the Misses Teresa and Elizabeth Lombardo.

A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Elizabeth Turco with valentine favors carried throughout.

Mrs. Elizabeth Turco was a special guest for the evening.

1929 Bridge Club

Mrs. R. J. Clark Cedar street entertained the members of the 1929 Bridge Club in her home on Thursday afternoon.

The afternoon began with a dinner at the Croton Methodist church, then the group went to the Clark home.

Bridge formed the diversion of the afternoon with prizes going to Mrs. Fred Flowers and Mrs. Lee Wetlich.

Mrs. E. M. Johnson, Clayton street will be hostess to the club March 8.

1923 S. L. Club.

Members of the 1923 S. L. club were entertained Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Dennis Donegan on Leasure avenue for the last meeting of the club before the Lenten season begins.

Three tables of cards were in play and prizes were awarded Mrs. T. Lalley and Mrs. Fred DeJancie. The hostess was assisted by her daughter Ethel Margaret in serving refreshments.

Going To Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Pike of Sheridan avenue expect to leave in a few days for an extended southern sojourn. They will visit St. Petersburg and other points of interest in Florida, not returning to New Castle until April.

WILL CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

On February 14, 1884, Edward B. Norris and Winifred Groark were united in wedlock in Pittsburgh, Pa. In celebration of that event, Mr. and Mrs. Norris, of 1212 Randolph street will set aside Tuesday, February 13 for a Golden Jubilee anniversary. The reason for the 13th being selected is that they do not wish to observe the day on Ash Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris moved to New Castle in 1894 and since then have been residents here. For the past twenty years Mr. Norris has been in the employ of the Manufacturers Light and Heat company. Nine children are living and it is probable that all of them will make an effort to be present on Tuesday, February 13. The day of celebration will be opened with a Nuptial Mass in St. Mary's church, and a wedding dinner will be served in the Norris home.

ANNUAL DINNER THURSDAY EVENING

Mrs. Anna Richards of Maryland avenue was hostess to the Re-United Ladies League Thursday evening at the annual chicken dinner.

At 6:30 the women sat down to a very prettily decorated table in red and white tones, the committee serving including Mrs. Anna Richards, Mrs. Ralph Phillips and Mrs. Anna Nolte.

Bingo was featured during the evening with prizes being awarded to Mrs. Anna Richards, Mrs. Charles Brickner and Mrs. Ralph Phillips.

The next meeting will be in two weeks with Mrs. Stright, 31½ North Mill street.

DINNER PARTY THURSDAY EVENT

A pleasurable event of Thursday evening was a dinner party in a local tea room in which Po Ko club members participated with Misses Leona Kaufman and Irene Thomas hostesses.

Covers were laid for eight and after a delicious dinner there were piano selections by Miss Margaret Wardman and a game of Po Ko No, Miss Marie Priesel and Irene Thomas winning distinction in the latter.

For the next meeting, February 21, the hostesses will be Misses Hazel Monroe and Margaret Wardman.

W. R. C. Meeting.

The Women's Relief Corps, 11, auxiliary to the G. A. R. had its regular session Tuesday evening in city hall, with President Anna Nolte in the chair.

At the close of business the past president, Mary Patterson, was presented by Millie Wallace and Florence Gillespie and given her past president's badge. She was also presented with a lovely gift from the members, the presentation speech being made by Mrs. Ethel Thomas.

Florence Gillespie, Georgianna Walsh, Mary Patterson and Ella McCune have planned an elaborate tureen dinner for February 20 at 6:30. An elaborate George Washington program has been arranged for later in the evening.

Bingo will feature the hours following the program.

Queen Esther Tea

The Queen Esther Auxiliary members of the First Methodist church will act as hostesses Friday evening at a tea party to be given in the church at 8 o'clock.

The group leaders, Ellen Wood, Mrs. Alfred Robbins, Mrs. Bessie Plizer and Mrs. Ralph Reed are in charge of arrangements.

Martha Ely is program chairman and she will present a group of Clara Hartsuff's dramatic students from Senior High, in a one act play, and also a style show.

Jolly 12 Club.

Jolly 12 club members were entertained Thursday evening by Mrs. Albert Perkins at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Baldwin, on East Washington street.

Following a business period cards were the diversion with prizes going to Mrs. Charles Foster, and Mrs. H. B. McConnell. Mrs. Baldwin assisted her mother, together with Miss Hulda Perkins, with a dainty lunch.

In two weeks, Mrs. H. B. McConnell of Round street, will be hostess.

J. G. T. Club

Gathering in the home of Miss Margaret Kelly on Bellevue avenue, last evening, J. G. T. club girls spent several delightful hours playing cards. Concluding the games, pretty favors were awarded Miss Laura Logan, Mrs. Harold Boughter and Miss Marie Priesel.

STIMULATING THE SICKEST INDUSTRY

SECRETARY ICKES gives out a report prepared by the Dodge Corporation showing that the construction industry is picking up and that all signs point to a pronounced stimulation this year.

The report, based on a survey made in 37 states east of the Rocky Mountains, indicates publicly financed work during 1934 will double the 1933 figure and that private work will continue to maintain moderate increases. Says the report:

"The construction industry, sicker of all sick industries a year ago, is very decidedly convalescent; it has many reasons for viewing the year 1934 with renewed hope and vigor."

There is no doubt that the allotments of the Public Works Administration will have a stimulating effect on construction. That was its purpose; to give employment to the jobless and to stir up business for those in the supply trade. The hopefulness expressed in the report given out by Secretary Ickes is reflected by prospective improvement in construction in this city and state.

Every little note of encouragement helps, particularly in a line that has been all but dormant. Any improvement in building is bound to have a good effect upon real estate generally. And that will be particularly welcome.

OUR LEADING DIVERSIONS

The answers of more than 5,000 persons to the questionnaire of the National Recreation Society, which made a survey of 29 cities, reveal newspaper and magazine reading as the most popular diversion in leisure hours. About four out of every five devote their spare time to it. A little more than half of those answering listed conversation as their preference.

Ten of the 94 activities listed in the questionnaire were participated in by the greater number of persons. Next to newspaper and magazine reading they listed listening to the radio, attending movies, visiting or entertaining, reading fiction books, swimming, letter writing, reading non-fiction books and conversation.

The order of popularity differed considerably, with the exception of reading. The most desired diversions, with few exceptions, are obtainable only at some cost to the individual who must provide for equipment, instruction or the price of admission. More than half of the diversions desired by the greatest number call for facilities, organization, leadership or special provisions by public or private agencies, a fact that points to the need of recreation facilities which municipalities and different organizations for years have provided to the extent of their means.

The inquiry showed that financial circumstances rather than choice dictated changes in recreation. The depression has driven people to home-centered diversion and away from activities costing money and physical exertion.

TRAINING FOR GOVERNMENT

A neat idea for training college students for public careers has been evolved by Chester H. McCall, Secretary Roper's assistant in the Commerce Department.

Mr. McCall would like to have 150 or 200 selected college students brought to Washington for three months every winter, to study the operation of the federal government at first hand, watch how executives and solons do their work, and attend lectures by cabinet officers and others.

In many ways this is a very sensible suggestion. It would be fine training for the young collegians, for one thing; for another, it ought also to be a good thing for the government officials with whom they would mingle.

Young collegians are notoriously quick to see through sham and bluff. A politician functioning for three months under the eyes of a gang of boys and girls from the campuses would have to tend to his knitting.

Hot air and bunk would get him no place. He would have to be good to make an impression.

HUMAN LIFE HELD CHEAPLY?

A large percentage of the human race has always met death through the criminality, ignorance or carelessness of fellow men.

Could the minds of all men be directed to the preservation of human life, what a difference it would make! No more wars, no more murders, no more preventable deaths through automobile accidents, no more lives lost in fires started through carelessness—how changed would be the front pages of our daily newspapers!

To mention only three causes of violent death, the best authorities estimate that in the United States each year 10,000 are murdered, 25,000 are killed in automobile accidents and 15,000 are burned to death.

The total number of persons killed in accidents now reaches more than 75,000 a year.

While giving our attention to a multitude of other reforms and laws, would it not be well to devote more serious thought and action towards reducing this appalling and unnecessary waste of human life.

Uncle Sam owns all the gold but he is still off the gold standard.

The wild and woolly West is not the bad man's paradise it used to be.

Uncle Sam has just borrowed a billion dollars. Evidently the old man's reputation still is good notwithstanding recent gossip.

If all of Cuba's ex-presidents could get together and remain together long enough, they ought to be able to recapture the presidency.

The state police exhibit at Boston's automobile show was raided by masked bandits who seized and carried off a number of guns and weapons. Another illustration that gangsters will not accept disarmament.

THEY SAY LIFE'S AN ONION

I've been told that life is just an onion, with many layers, layer around layer, and nothing at the heart of it.

Infancy is a layer, gurgling, smiling, careless infancy. . . . And after infancy comes childhood, stumbling, learning, most appealing childhood. And then youth, that years and struggles and fights with itself and with environments, and is so beautiful and is such a tangle and such a dream and the fact. . . . These three are merely layers of the Onion Called Life.

Every day is a thin onion peeling and every month but a thicker one, and year is only the peeling of an onion, too. . . . So they say. . . . And all that happens to a man, his joy, his pain, his work, his love, his peace, his battles, his struggle, his defeats, his conquests—they are all but the peeling of the onion. . . . And the more a man knows the longer he lives, the closer he comes to the empty heart of the onion, to the nothingness at the heart of life. . . . So I have heard.

And I remember reading in a book by Somerset Maugham, "Of Human Bondage." And a man in this book tells quietly of his life and the thoughts he used to have, and the dreams he followed and the obstacles he encountered and all his wonderments about the meaning of life. Until he arrived at last at a conclusion which for him meant a sort of peace. And his decision was, after all his pursuit of a meaning in life—it was that life had no meaning. . . . That was only an onion, you might say, with nothing at the center.

But if you peel an onion you find something more than an emptiness at its center. You find a bud that can be peeled no further. And if you put an onion in the dark earth or even let it lie in your cupboard, out of that center will come green sprouts and you will see that there is more in that vegetable than nothingness. You will find a precious, recreating something that quietly defies your analysis and your pessimism. You find hope there, and you find the future delicately, firmly implanted in the present. . . . And when you take life apart, you find something more than pessimism at its heart. You find a belief that defies all grief and defeat. You find a small, steady, comforting flame. . . . This I believe.

IT MIGHT BE WORSE

You may have sustained financial loss within recent years.

Years of savings are gone and you think your case one of the most serious that has befallen anyone.

You can't conceive of anyone having been so hard hit.

Matter of fact you are only one of thousands suffering the same loss.

The loss of savings of a lifetime is a serious matter.

But what you have lost may be insignificant in comparison with that lost by persons earning no more than you are earning.

Such persons perhaps made far greater sacrifices in order to make a nest egg for future protection.

If you want to learn that your loss is comparatively small, you ought to have a talk with some of your friends and learn the losses they have sustained; perhaps then you would complain less about your hard luck.

Always there are those worse off than you are.

To know some of these facts ought to make you less inclined to grumble about your hard-up condition.

So far you have had less illness and that is a silver lining, isn't it? Are you as thankful for this good fortune as you should be?

Your Income Tax

No. 11
GROSS AND NET INCOME

Two of the terms used in the income-tax law, namely "gross income" and "net income," should be noted particularly, inasmuch as they are vitally important to the whole subject of the income tax.

Gross income includes in general all income from any source whatever unless exempt from tax by law. Net income upon which the tax is assessed is gross income less the deductions allowed by law. Such deductions include business and professional expenses, such as salaries, pensions and bonuses to employees, taxes, losses, interest paid, bad debts, depreciation, depletion, contributions, etc. Failure to understand deductions against gross income and credits against net income has resulted in numerous errors on the part of taxpayers.

Having arrived at the net income, the next step is to deduct the personal exemption—$1,000 for single persons, $2,500 for married persons living together and heads of families and the $400 credit for each dependent, etc. The normal tax is computed on the remainder at the rate of 4 per cent on the first $4,000 and 8 per cent on the balance.

The gross income of the usual business consists of the gross profits on sales, plus any income from investments and incidental or outside operations or sources. The return must show the gross sales, purchases and cost of goods sold. To reflect income correctly, inventories are necessary at the beginning and end of each taxable year.

A lawyer, doctor, architect, physician, dentist, clergyman, author or other professional man must include in gross income all fees, salaries and compensation of any kind for professional services.

The World At A Glance

"Big, Bad Jesse Jones" Doesn't Frighten Glum Bankers Nationalization—But What Sort?

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer
NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—If Jesse R. Jones, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance corporation, tried to frighten bankers by threatening to put the government into the banking business if bankers did not extend credits freely, he failed.

Jones was speaking before the New York State Bankers association in New York.

Bankers here say that free lending of depositors' money will not help business. They say it will ruin business. They say that money and credit merely are tokens of exchange for goods and services—and it is fatal to put the cart before the horse. They add, if the government desires to spend the taxpayers' money in usurping the functions of banks, go ahead. There's nothing except danger in the banking business anyway, these days.

NATIONALIZATION?
One can't say "So there you are!" When bankers glumly cease to function because a government tries to force them to do what they believe to be unwise, arbitration is needed.

It's a strike.
New York asks: "Who will be the arbitrator? The government is an interested party."

As a matter of fact, the American government is trying to adapt to capitalistic business the functions of socialistic government—but without the planned social and economic program of a socialistic government.

The present course can lead only to socialization of banks, financiers secretly admit. Bankers, following the debacle of the last years—a debacle largely of their own creation—cannot be expected to step into deep water again with creeds.

And if the government itself proceeds to lend and extend credits without performing all the other functions of banking, it merely will demoralize conditions.

Thus, if the Jesse Jones imprecations are followed to a logical conclusion, we can see only the socialization of banks.

Will, however, that socialization proceed by degrees in the present haphazard manner—or will there be planned order and a swift, sure assumption of the functions?

That is a question anxiously asked by economists who fear political tinkering with money as much as they abhor capitalistic speculation.

CREDIT EXPANSION
The administration makes much of its efforts at credit expansion.

Bernard Kilgore in the Wall Street Journal analyzes it.

Says Kilgore: "The commercial banking system of this country actually has the general medium of exchange. Given a basic reserve of $1 it can lend credit to the extent roughly of $10.

Historic Anniversaries—1567.—The Snyder-Gray case had an antecedent: Mary Queen of Scots, 25, abetted her lover, Earl of Bothwell, 31, in the murder of her husband, Henry Lord Darnley, 21, as he lay ill of small-pox. Like Ruth and Judd, Mary and Bothwell died prisoners. (For three centuries the floor at the outer door of the queen's apartments had a large irregular dark spot identified as the blood of another of Bothwell's victims, David Rizzio, the queen's too handsome secretary. The oxide of iron in Rizzio's blood impressed itself in the floor too deeply to be worn away.)

1861.—Jefferson Davis, 33, graduate of U. S. Military Academy, Mexican war veteran, ex-secretary of war of U. S., recently resigned senator from Mississippi, was chosen president of the Confederacy. Nine days later, at Montgomery, Ala., he was inaugurated, began a job he did not like. (He wanted to command the army, let some one else be president.)

1867.—Nebraska ("wide river") admitted as 37th state over the veto of President Andrew Johnson. (It formally entered Union Mar. 1.) Morse: Equality Before the Law. Flower: Goldenrod.

Notables Born This Date—William Henry "Tippecanoe" Harrison, b. 1773, who was President for the shortest term in history; he died one month after taking office. He was also the oldest man (68) to be elected President. Samuel Tilden, b. 1814, who was cheated out of the Presidency. A. H. Hawkins, b. 1803 who as Archbishop wrote a version of Zenda and established new schools of romantic writings. Geo. Ade, b. 1866, short story writer famed for Tables in Slang. Ronald Colman, b. 1861, cinematist.

Forgotten Heroes of Yesterday.—M. de Valfey. He invented the envelope and postpaid envelopes, in the middle 17th century. Until the time of this Frenchman, it was customary to fold or roll a letter and seal it with ribbon and wax. Another Valfey invention: the form letter, applicable to business communications, with blank spaces to be filled in by the writer.

Trinity Players' Torch-Bearers' Pleases Throng

Growd Of 1,200 Present At Cathedral For Church Group's Comedy

ROLES WELL TAKEN BY TALENTED CAST

Twelve hundred New Castle play lovers who made a heroic dash from their homes to the Cathedral in the biting cold of last night found themselves well repaid by the three-act "Torch-Bearers," a satirical comedy given by a talented group of local stage performers now organized as the Trinity Players.

The play itself was given under the auspices of the Men's club of the Trinity Episcopal church and was produced under the personal direction of Presley M. Jones.

A better cast, perhaps, could not have been found to enact this comedy of amateur thespians which is the work of George Kelly, and perhaps, too, the production itself was never better executed—except for maybe a minor line or two—than it was before that laughing Cathedral audience last night. The "Torch-Bearers" was first presented in Asbury Park, N. J. back in 1922. To sum things up the leads—in a way it was hard to distinguish them—and the entire supporting cast provided for a chilled but happy audience a tonic of continual fun that was the right prescription for such a night—for any night, in fact. The Trinity Players well established themselves as fine play producers last night and that deserving reputation is bound to help when they offer their next performance.

Seated in the audience as the guests of the Men's club of Trinity last night were 60 students of the Community Theatre class now meeting evenings at the North Street school. The club also played host to a number of Margaret Henry home children.

Playing the roles last night were

Jennie (the maid)—Isabelle Johnson.

Mrs. Paula Ritter (Ritter's wife)—Betty Glover.

Mrs. J. Duro Pampinelli—Evelyn Pearson.

Mr. Spindler—Fred A. Glenn.

Mrs. Kelly Fell—Jane McIlwraith.

Mr. Huxley Hossefrosse—Dudley M. Arnold.

Teddy Sparring—Otto Pearsall.

Miss Florence McCrickett—Lola Davenport.

Mr. Ralph Twiller—Francis S. Scorsby.

Mr. Stage Manager—John Hope.

Mrs. Clara Sheppard—Becky Carson.

With Mr. Jones as the general supervisor, an efficient executive staff, comprised of F. E. Sowersby, Alfred E. Walker, D. M. Arnold, J. A. Hope, H. J. Cullford, L. J. Lewis and Francis S. Sowersby, functioned to assist him. The players were coached by R. H. Rogers. Charles Jamison was technician.

Playing during the intermissions last night were a group of local orchestra players under Francis Hammond's direction.

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

Matthew 7:19—"Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire."

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL
(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Feb. 11 is Matthew, chapter 7, the conclusion of the Sermon on the Mount, the Golden Text being verse 19, "Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.")

In The Sermon on the Mount, which is enunciated as the King's "Code" for the kingdom of heaven, the King has dealt with the kingdom's nature as spiritual; its purpose, as salvation and enlightenment; its policy as fulfillment not nullification of law; its spirit as sincerity not show; its rewards heavenly and abiding not worldly and perishing. Now in concluding the sermon he enunciates principles embodying the atmosphere of the kingdom as love and the goal of the kingdom of life.

The Atmosphere of the Kingdom
Love
In the sixth sermon within the Sermon on the Mount our Lord enunciates the principle of love as the atmosphere of his kingdom and not the spirit of censorious criticism. "Judge not that ye be not judged." On this as a text Jesus proceeds to show the fallacy of unloving criticism that it provokes the same spirit in retaliation: "For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged; and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured unto you." Life is largely a reflection of our own attitudes. We get out of it about what we put into it.

Jesus as Cartoonist
To illustrate the folly of the unloving critic Jesus drew a humorous "cartoon" of a man with a great beam protruding from his own eye, yet trying to pick a tiny speck out of the eye of his fellow man. Of course it is overdrawn as all cartoons are, and as Jesus did later in his "cartoon" of those who strained out gnats and swallowed camels (Matt. 23:24). Folks can often catch the point from a cartoon where a sermon would fail. "Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye." As a substitute for criticism Jesus recommends prayer. "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you." And he concludes this sermon within the sermon by enunciating the Golden Rule of love: "All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them; for this is the law and the prophets." The fundamental law of religion and of life is love. "Love is the fulfilling of the law." It is the very atmosphere of the kingdom.

The Goal of the Kingdom
Most sermons that fail, fail because they aim at nothing and hit it. Jesus' Sermon on the Mount was all directed toward a great objective. That objective was the goal of the kingdom, viz: Life. "Enter ye in by the narrow gate; for the way is wide, that leadeth to destruction, and many be they that enter in thereby. For narrow is the gate, and straitened the way, that leadeth unto life, and few be they that find it." No teaching has any value until it is transformed into life. It is to be judged by the type of life it produces. Not by outward appearance or empty professions are teachers branded false or true but by the type of life their teachings inspire. Teaching that does not issue in life is doomed to destruction. "Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

Therefore by their fruits ye shall know them." The application of Christ's teachings to life is likened to a man who built his house upon rock with the result that it withstood the assault of the storms of life. The same teaching, divorced from life he likened to a foolish man who built his house upon the sand. Under the same storms it fell and great was the fall thereof. Life then is the thing. If religion results in life it has achieved the goal the King has set for his kingdom.

BIG CAR ORDER IS RECEIVED AT BUTLER

BUTLER, Pa., Feb. 9.—W. G. Helsel, plant manager of the Standard Steel Car corporation, announced today that the company had received a $2,000,000 order from the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad company for 1,150 steel cars. An order from the Erie Railroad company for 750 cars, to cost $1,500,000, is expected soon. The order is the first large one received by the company in three years. Manager Helsel expects that actual work on the contract will begin about April 1. Only 300 men have been employed in the plant recently, and this will be increased to 1,100 when car building begins.

MAN SWALLOWS TEETH

WHILE HE'S SLEEPING

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Feb. 9.—Sharp pains, similar to a heart attack awakened James Eblen from a sound sleep at his McLeansboro, Ill., home. His lower set of false teeth were missing. He rushed to Wellborn-Walker hospital here and an X-ray revealed the dental plate about 10 inches down his esophagus. Eblen suffered no ill effects after the obstruction was removed with a long probing instrument.

Will Arbitrate Truck Dispute

Board Of Arbitration To Decide On Pay For

EXPECT BIDDLE TO NAME BOARD

After failing to come to a satisfactory agreement in the matter of truck rates for CWA work, both Administrator L. B. Round and the truckers' representatives, M. A. Mulcahy and John Velker, agreed on Thursday afternoon to submit the matter to a board of arbitration for final settlement.

The meeting Thursday was the fourth of a series of conferences. For some weeks the truckers, thru their representatives, have contended that they should be paid more per hour than they have been getting. They cite the federal CWA rate book which shows rates which can be paid them, but these rates Mr. Round has contended are maximum. The rates vary according to the size of the truck, determined by the license it bears. For S licensed trucks the local CWA has been paying $1.20 per hour, the rate book not showing this class.

Other Classes.

"T" licensed trucks have been paid $1.25 per hour here, with the rate shown in the CWA book as $1.50. "U" licensed trucks have been getting $1.50 per hour here as against $1.90 per hour shown in the book. "V" licensed trucks have been getting $1.70 per hour as against $2.20 shown in the book and "W" licensed trucks have been getting $2.25 per hour as against $2.40 shown in the book.

The positions of the two sides changed but little at the conferences. Mulcahy and Velker argued that the chauffeur owned truck should be paid the rate shown. Round insisting that this rate was maximum and that the rates paid here were fair and equitable. The truckers presented a computation of costs to the administrator and these were considered as well as a list of cost computations made by him. At the Thursday conference Mr. Round made an offer of five cents per hour increase for the "T" licensed trucks, and an increase of 15 cents per hour for the "V" licensed trucks. This offer was refused.

Biddle To Appoint.
It is the understanding that the arbitration board will be appointed by Eric H. Biddle, state CWA administrator. No formal request has been made that this be done and likely will not be until after a meeting of the truckers Monday night. The offer of the CWA here will be presented to the truckers as a body and they are expected to refuse the new rates and ask that the matter be adjusted by an arbitration board. In the past several days two investigators, Hicks and Buck, have been in New Castle checking up the work of the CWA but their findings have not been made public.

AMERICANISM: Paying homage to "intellectuals" who sneer at copy-book maxims; taking a fifty-billion loss those maxims would have prevented.

TWINS FEARED GANG TARGETS

Expect Big Crowd At Community Banquet Event

Committeemen who have charge of the community fathers and sons banquet in the Cathedral Tuesday night, February 13, are working towards a 1000 attendance goal this year. Last year the attendance was 720 and with the memory of the success of last year's banquet still fresh, the committeemen have high hopes of surpassing it.

Tickets are now on sale for the banquet and can be secured at the Y. M. C. A., the Boy Scout office, all of the service clubs and the Castle Stationery.

General Chairman Ralph Davis announced today that Rev. G. S. Bennett would be the toastmaster of the evening with the speakers to be announced later. Every father and son in the city is invited to attend the banquet this year, and because of the price, 25 cents each, it is thought that a mammoth crowd will be present.

JUST OUT OF LUCK
Motorist: I had the right of way when this man ran into me, yet you say I was to blame.
Policeman: You certainly was.

"Why?"
"Because his father is mayor, his brother is chief of police, and I'm engaged to his sister."

That is, women outlive their husbands if they don't outsmoke and outdrink them.

Hold Two Men At Milwaukee

Two Carrying $1,800 When Arrested, Will Be Questioned In Bremer Kidnaping

(International News Service)
MILWAUKEE, Feb. 9.—Two men who were carrying $1,850 when arrested were being questioned by police here today in an effort to determine whether they had any part in the kidnaping of Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul banker, who was released upon payment of $200,000 ransom.

They are Ben Larson, 33, Grand Rapids, Minn., and August Chavert, 34, of Milwaukee. The men said they arrived here last night.

Pre-School Survey Almost Completed

With the exception of preparing the charts showing the results of the survey, the pre-school survey conducted here in the past month under the direction of Superintendent C. C. Green is completed. The homes of the city have been visited.

Other projects which are being requested as CWA projects are a survey of the electric lighting facilities of the schools of New Castle and a visiting nurse service in which some 15 nurses will be utilized in visiting the homes of children who are listed as having physical deficiencies.

Economics Class Taxing Class Room

One of the courses of study in the Senior high school which got away to a rather slow start several years ago, the Vocational Home Economics class, is now proving one of the most popular in the school according to Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent.

The facilities for the class are now taxed to the limit and if the class increases in size, some arrangements will have to be made to accommodate the crowd. The class is under the direction of Mrs. Viola Healy, Miss Ruth Wallace and Miss Annetta Barry.

Penn Homestead To Be Restored; Built In 1693

Friends Of Pennsbury Society To Raise $500,000 For Proposed Project

DIRECTION OF CWA

By JOHN W. SCOTZIN
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Feb. 9.—The magnificent home of William Penn, rarely if at all mentioned by historians, is being restored in all its original aspects as the greatest memorial ever erected to the memory of the founder of Pennsylvania.

Laid waste by the ravages of time and the elements, the site of the once wonder of the wilderness has been definitely located in what is now Pennsbury, Bucks county.

The foundations were uncovered by the Pennsylvania State Historical commission under the immediate supervision of Dr. Donald A. Cadzow, state archaeologist. A group of 42 CWA workers is now grading the land and restoring the landscape to its original setting.

Several years will be required to restore the mansion, the work to cost about $500,000, Dr. Cadzow said. Funds will be raised through public subscription by the friends of Pennsbury society, formed by a group of Quakers.

Nothing remains of the once proud home, scene of the signing of 19 peace treaties with the Indians and from where Penn conducted the business of the budding commonwealth but broken bricks scattered in the ground.

The carefully tended terraces, the beautiful gardens full of rare imported trees and flowers, the surrounding forest that formed a majestic background—all have disappeared. A weather-beaten wooden sign, hidden from view by a mass of tall weeds, informs the occasional visitor that this is the site of William Penn's home.

Thousands of pieces of green and yellow tile that once composed the two fireplaces have been found, still in a fine state of preservation. The tile that once covered the roof, together with dishes, odd pieces of bottles, rusted blades of knives, brew containers and coins have also been uncovered. All will be used in the process of restoration.

Penn began erection of his beautiful dwelling in 1693 and expended about 7,500 pounds sterling, a considerable sum for that day. He imported his workmen from England. The mansion stood about 15 feet above high water near a small stream known as Welcome creek, about 50 yards from the banks of the Delaware river.

Dr. Cadzow said it has been determined that it was not the weakness of the foundations that caused the downfall of the house but an ill-chosen original idea of the owner.

Penn had a huge lead tank installed on top of the building to collect rain water for fire protection, Dr. Cadzow revealed. He thus became the first plumber on the continent. Serving its purpose for a few years, the tank began to leak soon before Penn's departure for England in 1701. Water seeped through the house, opening crevices through which rains poured. The house disintegrated and collapsed shortly before the Revolutionary war.

Plans Progress For Maine Day

United Spanish War Veterans Will Observe Event Which Started War

Plans are progressing for the annual observance of Maine Day by Col. Daniel Leasure Camp, United Spanish War Veterans, which will take place on Thursday evening, February 15.

The program will open with a tureen dinner for members and their families. This will be followed by instrumental and vocal music, and other high class entertainment by some of the most talented artists in the city.

Following the program, there will be Bingo, for which the Spanish War Veterans are expected to donate prizes.

The committee from the Ladies Auxiliary, who are assisting with the plans, is composed of Mrs. William E. Hoover, Mrs. M. L. Porter, and Mrs. Fred Hurlibus.

AROUND CITY HALL

Years ago it was the policy of the electric street railway to be quite philanthropic with passes to city employees but of recent years the practice has been cut down somewhat. Only police and firemen now receive the cards which entitles them to ride free.

Tom Moore, superintendent of the local street car company is not averse to the city asking slippery streets but he believes the employees who scatter the ashes should be careful as to how they distribute them. When the ashes are thrown on the rails the circuit is grounded, he said yesterday. During a recent storm the city employees tried to help the autoists and put ashes on the various hills. Some of the ashes got on the East Side rails and street car traffic was tied up temporarily on that route, Moore stated.

Two pulmotors are kept at the city building ready for emergencies, according to police department attaches. They claim that they have saved the lives of several persons. All of the office force and drivers of police cars understand how to operate the pulmotors.

There was a time when the department of health had three sanitary policemen. One now does the work. He has an automobile to transport him to different sections. He acts as inspector of food; investigates sanitary nuisances; puts up and takes down quarantine signs; makes investigations at city dumps; watches for persons who toss garbage along the city streets; collects samples of milk and water which are tested by the city's bacteriologist, and when springs or wells are found to be contaminated boards them up and posts notice that the water is poisoned.

Five city policemen today are taking one of the tests necessary before they can qualify as police radio operators. The examinations are being held in Pittsburgh. They have been going to their classes here twice a day for the past month. Wayne Sines has been giving the men instructions.

Talking about how liquor vendors got the name "Bootlegger" reminds one that in the days of long ago bottles of liquor were hidden in boots. This happened here Thursday night. A chap who wanted to sleep in the bunkroom at the city building had a pint hidden in his boot but a keen-eyed bluecoat suspected him of having a bottle and found it on him. He was given a cell for the night.

Police chronology for 24 hours ending 3:30 p. m. February 8, five arrests on charges as follows: suspicion 3 and violation of parking ordinance, 2.

Street Addresses Causing Trouble

Postal Regulations Are Causing Some Annoyance At State Buildings

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Feb. 9.—Because Pennsylvania's state capitol and the various administrative departments have no street addresses no end of trouble has been stirred up here.

The NRA code for envelope manufacturers contains a clause stating that all return addresses in the future are to be printed according to postal regulations.

Postal regulations require street and number on return addresses. As a result, the Pittsburgh concern which prints many of the state's envelopes has informed the state bureau of publications it can no longer print return addresses on envelopes for the state departments unless a street address is supplied.

Efforts are being made to have the envelope code authority make an exception for state capitol envelopes.

Dedicate Light In Trinity Church

Memory Of Late Harry K. Bell
To Be Honored At Morning Service

On Sunday, in Trinity church at the 11 a. m. service a new light for the pulpit will be set apart to the use of the church and the glory of God.

It bears the inscription "In memory of Harry K. Bell, Vestryman and Lay-reader, given by his mother, wife and children, 1933," engraved on the top of the brass adjustable cylinder, which shades the light alike from the eyes of the congregation and the preacher standing in the pulpit, but casts light on the pulpit desk.

Friends and former associates of Mr. Bell are invited to the dedication. The gift is a most appropriate one, for Mr. Bell when acting as Lay-reader stood often in the pulpit of Trinity church.

Ash Wednesday To Be Observed

Wednesday of next week is Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent, commemorating the forty days and forty nights Christ fasted and prayed in the wilderness while He was tempted.

Ash Wednesday is a day of strict fasting and prayer, almost equal to Good Friday in importance. Public services in Trinity church will be morning prayer at 9 a. m., Litany, Penitential Office and Holy Communion at 9:30 a. m., Litany, Penitential Office and sermon, preacher, Rev. P. C. Pearson, with music at 8:00 p. m.

Why the Sudden Change to Liquid Laxatives?

Doctors have always recognized the value of the laxative whose dose can be measured, and whose action can be thus regulated to suit individual need.

The public, too, is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that a properly prepared liquid laxative brings a perfect movement without any discomfort at the time, or after.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.

The wrong cathartic may often do more harm than good.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescription, and is perfectly safe. Its laxative action is based on senna—a natural laxative. The bowels will not become dependent on this form of help. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is at all druggists. Member N. R. A.

Marrying 'Squire Couldn't Believe Own Death Notice

(International News Service)
WAYNESBURG, Pa., Feb. 9.—The numerous couples who have called upon him at all hours of the day and night to unite them in marriage never caused Squire L. Zimmerman, justice of the peace in Morrisville, much alarm.

But when he read about his death recently, the squire who performs free marriage ceremonies, just couldn't believe it.

The truth is that Zimmerman is still alive.

For 12 years he had adhered to the policy of performing marriages under one provision—that the bride and bridegroom must kiss when the ceremony is concluded. The majority of his weddings have been performed free of charge.

Plans Regulation Of Stock Market

President Prepares Program Of Regulations For Market Procedure

EXPECTS CONGRESS TO GIVE SANCTION

By EDWARD B. LOCKETT
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Drastic regulation of stock and commodity market transactions have been approved by President Roosevelt for submission to congress.

The bill will propose strict regulation of exchanges through operation of the Interstate Commerce laws, and will be administered by the federal trade commission since enforcement of the act regulating issuance of new securities is one of its present duties.

Short sales, marginal operations and "pools" were the particular marks at which the president shot in drafting the new proposals. A system of "registration" on the part of stock and commodity exchanges will be set up to provide the government a close check on all market operations.

Confers With Leaders

Mr. Roosevelt called his congressional leaders to the White House to draft the legislation, and went as far as the law would stand in regulating market operations.

The president regards enactment of market and commodity exchange regulation as one of the major promises of the Democratic platform. At this inaugural he pledged to do everything possible to prevent speculators from gambling with other peoples' money. He told reporters he tried to do this in the proposed measure.

Hearings on the bill will be open, despite Wall Street requests that testimony be taken behind closed doors.

CLASS MEETING.

A most enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mrs. John Weir, Thursday, when several members from her class gathered there. After a short devotional service, they decided on selecting a certain hymn as their class song. The next class meeting will be held at the home of Miss Helen Booher, in March. The affair will take the form of a "Kid" party. Those present were Mareia and Margaret Tanner, Lois Body, Hazel Mercer, Beatrice Johnson, Ruth Weinschenk, Helen Booher, Frances Reno, Dorothy Weir and the hostess, Mrs. Weir.

CHURCH NOTES.

Services Sunday at the Savannah Methodist church will be as follows:—Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Henry Taylor, Supt. Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Epworth League at 6:30 and evening service at 7:30.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.

Special evangelistic services will be held at the church during the next three weeks, commencing Sunday evening. During the first week the pastor, Rev. V. L. Bloomquist, will preach. Special music will be given each evening. Tuesday evening will be Missionary Night, the Standard Bearers will attend in a body. Wednesday evening will be Official Board

State Deer Herds In Good Shape

Game Commission Says Pennsylvania Deer In Healthy Condition

WILLIAMSPORT, Feb. 9.—Pennsylvania's deer herds are in exceptionally good health as a result of a better balance between the number of bucks and does and an abundance of natural food, the game commission says.

Without seriously affecting the natural rate of increase in the herds, open seasons on antlerless deer in 1928, 1930 and 1931 were a long step toward the improved conditions, the commission says, pointing out that in those years many old barren does—detriments to the herds—were killed off.

Food Plentiful.
"Deer lines"—long stretches of woodlands with shrubbery and trees stripped of foliage as high as a deer can reach—have disappeared from most of the game lands, officials say, because of a more equal distribution of the herds in line with available food.

Sportsmen of the Monroe-Pike district have noted, however, a greater number of smaller deer this year than ever before. They say they believe the condition is a result of an increase in the descendants of small deer released 30 years ago by C. C. Worthington of Shawnee rather than a deterioration in the size of deer introduced earlier.

The game commission says the state's herds are in no danger of extermination by hunters' rifles, even though the 1933 kill—not yet completely tabulated—exceeded the 1932 total by almost 600.

More Bears Killed.
Of the number reported, 4,172 had 2 points on the antlers; 5,075 had 3; 6,587, 4; and 4,646, 5 or more. Conservation officials say the size and number of bucks killed exceeded expectations.

To an early tracking snow and the fact that more hunters were in the woods is accredited the unusual increase in the number of bears killed last season. A total of 586 has been reported, as compared with 216 in 1932.

Hunters of wild turkeys also were more successful this year than last. Their kill totaled 3,518 birds, as against 2,992 last year. Three illegal elk were killed.

UMBERTO PRIMO SOCIETY.
A regular monthly meeting of the Umberto Primo society will take place Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, in the King Humbert hall on Division street.

Fellowship Will Visit At Trinity

Young People Of Sharon Will Be Guests Of Trinity Y. P. F. Sunday Evening

The Young People's Fellowship of St. John's church, Sharon, is coming to Trinity church Sunday evening, according to word received by Isabel Johnson, secretary of the local group.

The program will consist of refreshments, in charge of Thelma Hemphill, Irene Kietzsch and Mary Metzler, for the visitors from Mercer county and the Y. P. F. of Trinity; 6:30 p. m., young people's meeting open to all young people in the county, with William Walker as leader, Isabel Johnson at the piano and Benjamin Johnson as discussion leader. Subject, "Christianity and Communism". All arrangements are in charge of Mary Norton and under the general supervision of the rector.

At 7:30 p. m. all will attend a special service in the church. The senior choir, under the direction of Paul Brown Patterson, will render a special musical program, and a sermon appropriate to the occasion will be delivered by the Rev. Philip C. Pearson.

Paulsboro, N. J., Fire Damage Is Set At $250,000

Floor Covering Plant Is Destroyed; Firemen Suffer From Intense Cold

MANY BUILDINGS DAMAGED BY FLAMES

(International News Service) PAULSBORO, N. J., Feb. 9.—A spectacular $250,000 fire which for a time threatened the entire business section of Paulsboro today destroyed the floor covering plant of the Sandura, Inc.

Six buildings comprising the plant property and six bungalows on the grounds occupied by workmen were razed by the spreading flames which attacked and damaged the adjacent freight station of the Pennsylvania railroad before being checked.

Despite the scorching heat thrown off by the flame swept structure, the sub-zero temperature and howling winds forced fire fighters, summoned from surrounding communities by a general alarm, to work in relays. Physicians on the scene treated many firemen for frostbite, frozen hands, feet, ears and faces.

Rugs Destroyed.

The fire, blamed on spontaneous combustion, started in the drying room and quickly spread to other structures. More than 800,000 finished rugs stored in a warehouse were consumed by the flames.

As building after building collapsed, flying embers, born away by the high wind, threatened hundreds of homes and business establishments.

Greece May Try To Jail Insull

Former Utilities Magnate Failed To Leave Greece When Ordered To Go

VISITOR'S PERMIT REPORTED EXPIRES

(International News Service) ATHENS, Feb. 9.—Samuel Insull may be imprisoned because he failed to leave Greece Jan. 31 when his visitor's permit expired, it was unofficially stated today.

Premier Panagiotis Tsaldaris, in conversation with friends, is reported to have called attention to the fact that Insull's failure to leave when his permit expired might "entail consequences."

The law governing registration of aliens provides imprisonment for not leaving the country at the expiration of a permit.

City Agrees To Construct Wall

City council convened in the city hall today and agreed to have a wall built in front of the property owned by Miss Grace Robinson, at 602 Taylor street. The city made an improvement in Taylor street which necessitated a slightly wall at the property. The work will be done by CWA stonemasons. The wall will cost about $50.00, it is estimated by the city engineer.

COUNCIL PASSES TOOL ORDINANCE

Council met in the city building today and adopted the Davies ordinance which provided for the purchase of tools and equipment to replace tools and equipment heretofore furnished to the city by Frick-Leid Supply company of Pittsburgh for CWA work here.

Scouting Opens Its Celebration

24th Anniversary Exercises
Held At School; Boys
Mobilize Tomorrow

Scouting inaugurated its 24th Anniversary Week locally with fitting exercises in the George Washington high school last night, and, despite the sub-zero temperature prevailing, a crowd of interested parents and friends of New Castle district troops turned out to witness it.

Anniversary Week affairs will continue almost daily from now until February 13th, the night of which Scouting joins with others of the community in the celebration of the New Castle's second annual father's and sons' banquet at the Cathedral.

Hear Roosevelt Saturday

What promises to be the most significant event of the observance will be the mobilization in the Y. M. C. A. here on Saturday of scouts from all over the district to hear President Roosevelt's assignment to a "national good turn." Through out America scouts will gather to hear the president's message at 11:45 a. m. In Ellwood City the scouts will meet in the Lincoln high school auditorium.

Sunday comes as "Scout Sunday" with all of the New Castle district troops assembling to hear the sermon of Dr. C. K. McGeorge, pastor of the Second U. P. church. His subject will be "Youth Ways or Grip, Grit and Grace." The scout service will occur at night. At Ellwood City the First Presbyterian church will be host to the troops of that district.

Program As Witnessed

The following exercises were carried out at the Washington program last night:

Song by the audience "America," the beautiful Ray Zeigler leading. Remarks by the presiding officer, Commissioner Ralph F. Davis (Silver Beaver '31) introducing scouts present.

8:15 o'clock—Renewal of the Scout oath, led by Mr. Davis. Award of "Principles of Scout-mastership" diplomas by Dr. R. F. Galbreath, president of Westminster College.

Permanent award of the Lawrence County contest trophies: won by West Pittsburg, 1 for 1933, Jack Hainsworth, scoutmaster. Training course awards in "Map-making" by Glenn Throop, course leader "Troop Camping" Rev. R. C. Lutz.

"Part II, Elements of Scout-mastership" and "Advanced" diplomas, by Scoutmaster Sid Smith.

Presentation of "The Scoutmaster's Key Degree" to Dr. R. C. Lutz, scoutmaster troop V-37 (Kiwanis club).

Presentation of "The Past President's Badge" and "The President's Badge" to Messrs. F. F. Fischer and L. B. Round.

The following named north district troops will assemble on the platform: Troop 3 (First U. P.), Troop V-5 (Lions Club); Troop 12 (Second U. P.); Troop V-15 (First

Wounds Wife And Daughter, Commits Suicide In Home

Pittsburgh Man Suddenly Goes Insane And Stages Fatal Shooting

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 9.—Gun fire from a weapon held in the hands of a 58-year-old father today cost his life and may take those of his wife and daughter.

After shooting his wife, Marie, 56, and his daughter, Mrs. Theresa Gusuale, 27, Anthony Troppoli, 58, went to the cellar of his home here and fired a bullet into his brain.

Mrs. Gusuale, in an attempt to shield her mother from the shots which followed a wine party in the home, was reported in critical condition at Pittsburgh hospital with a bullet wound in her abdomen. Her mother is also in serious condition with three wounds, one each in the abdomen, elbow and hip.

Fall Convention In Beaver Falls

Mid-Western Section Of State Educational Association Selects Place

At a meeting of the executive committee of the mid-western section of the Pennsylvania State Educational association, held Thursday afternoon in the office of Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools, Beaver Falls was selected as the place for the 1934 fall convention. It will be held October 26-27.

At the meeting were the president of the section, John A. Gibson of Butler, S. W. Lyons of New Brighton, Ray D. Welch of Greenville, Superintendent Lambert of Beaver county, Vaughn R. DeLong of Ellwood City and Dr. C. C. Green.

This will be the third annual convention of the mid-western section, the first two being held in New Castle.

Bible Class Holds Spaghetti Dinner

Meeting for the monthly get-together, the Young Married Peoples Bible class of the Epworth M. E. church featured a spaghetti dinner in the dining rooms of the church Thursday evening. Following the dinner President William Twaddle conducted the business meeting. A social hour concluded the evening's activities. At the March meeting of the class the annual election of officers will be held.

HORSE FEATHERS CLUB ASKS FOR CHARTER

(International News Service)
DENVER.—The Horse Feathers Apple Sauce Society has applied for incorporation under the laws of Colorado.

In the words of the founder Bishop Frank Rice of the Liberal Church, the objects of the society are:

"To limit the number of charter members to 50,000.

"To protect members against theologically loaded dice, divinely marked cards, sacred gold bricks, holy shell games, rascally saints and pious swindlers.

"To ordain ministers, priests, rabbis and bishops.

"To scientifically serve lawful, health-giving and invigorating beverages at all official meetings of the charter members."

Almonds shelled and blanched, cooked in the sauce for your fish course, add flavor and attractiveness in serving.

LIVED FOR 17 YEARS IN TOMB OF FATHER

(International News Service)

VUKOVAR, Yugoslavia—Viada Panle, once the richest man of this little town, lived for 17 years in the tomb of his father in the local graveyard.

When he lost his fortune about 17 years ago, the only thing left for him was the spacious family vault.

So he moved in, placed a bed between the coffins of his father and mother and lived there until the end of last year.

At Christmas time he complained to some of the visitors of the churchyard of sickness and old age, and he was removed to the Vukovar poorhouse. He is now 73 years old.

That is, the code fixes the price of a used car if you are trading it in instead of buying it.

NEW SOCKS FROM OLD NETS MAN LIVELIHOOD

PORTLAND, Ore.—"Old socks for new" is Bernard Menkens' answer to hard times.

Menkens, a dairyman near Portland, discovered he had to find another source of income when his milk checks proved barely sufficient to pay the feed bills of his herd. In his spare time he rigged up a strange hand-knitting machine and is now busy making durable socks for men out of silk hosiery discarded by the women.

A process he has perfected salvages silk threads from women's worn out hose and twists them into new, firm strands, for his knitting machine.

"I'm not getting rich, but my socks pay for the groceries," Menkens laughed.

HORTON SPEAKS AT WESTMINSTER TODAY

Scout Executive Herbert G. Horton today addressed Westminster college's student body in its regular morning chapel. He spoke on "Scouting."

The scout chief reported that almost 50 per cent of the college fellows raised their hands when he inquired as to how many were former scouts.

SOUTH SIDE YOUTH SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Little Bob Stafford, 7, of East Long avenue who was injured a few nights ago when he ran into a fender of an automobile on the corner of East Long and Pollock avenues, is reported showing improvement in the New Castle hospital.

Dr. J. N. Rule Advocates Educational Changes

Would Relieve Realty Taxpayer Of Burden Of Schools To Some Extent

Urges Reorganization Of Smaller School Districts Of Pennsylvania

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Feb. 9.—Three new educational "R's" were advocated Thursday by Dr. James N. Rule, state superintendent of public instruction, at the closing session of the annual convention of the Pennsylvania school directors association. They were:

Restoration of the education program; reorganization of school district lines, and revision of the system of school support to relieve the realty taxpayers.

Program Presented
In presenting a program which he said would promote public school recovery, Dr. Rule asserted:

We need a modern knee action, streamlined machine that will eliminate jars and pressures, in place of the present, orse and luggy type of school organizations.

Dr. Rule asked that an immediate study of the situation be made in order that a comprehensive plan of consolidating school districts into larger units could be submitted to the 1935 legislature.

The delegates adopted a resolution urging each county directors association to appoint a committee to determine the stand of all legislative candidates on proposed income tax legislation for schools which the convention endorsed.

Regulate Athletics
Another resolution recommended better regulation of high school athletics and that strenuous contests between schools be discouraged.

The question of consolidating school districts was disposed of by a resolution advocating a co-operative study. A committee of three members will be appointed for that purpose.

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 9.—Former installation of the Westminster chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, honorary journalistic fraternity, will take place on Saturday, February 24, Charles Branfield, president of the group announces.

Due to the illness of Dr. Henry Gratton Doyle, grand president, this installation was postponed from last month. Ten members will be initiated, and a formal dinner will be held Saturday evening in the Hill-side. District members of Pi Delta Epsilon and district newspaper men have been invited to the installation.

Stolen Tombstone Is Back In Place

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 9.—A white tombstone, which mysteriously disappeared from the grave of Robert Brinkhurst, famed colonial coach builder who designed the coach in which George Washington rode while president, has been returned. The stone's reappearance was as mysterious as its disappearance. Police believe the headstone was "stolen" by a group of college or high school boys who, as an initiation stunt, were assigned to get something unusual.

BROKE WOODEN LEG DIED AS A RESULT

(International News Service)
NEW FREEDOM, Pa.—His wooden leg which he broke accidentally in a fall was held as the indirect cause of the death of Emery C. Hampsher, 67, of near here. Hampsher in a fall on ice shattered the artificial limb, the splinters inflicting injuries to the stump. Complications developed causing his death.

Second Semester Starts At Westminster College

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 9.—Second semester started at Westminster College Wednesday following a recess period between semesters which started Friday, Feb. 3. Enrollment for the second semester included 20 new students, and it is thought that others will enroll before the end of the week.

Miss Jennie Lee, former member of the British Parliament, spoke at the opening chapel assembly and was enthusiastically received by students and faculty. Miss Lee spoke on the need for insistence upon world peace by young people. The second activity of the new semester was two showings of free "silent" movies in the Little Theatre. A Charlie Chaplin comedy and five reels of the Olympic games provided amusement for the student body. Students bought pop-corn at the door and cheered during the showing of the movies.

Carl E. Rankin, who acted as dean and registrar since last July, is now an assistant professor in the department of education, and Dr. J. A. Swindler, former registrar, is acting as dean and registrar. Attorney Robert M. White, New Castle, is again lecturer in law this semester.

A basketball game Thursday night between women of the faculty and a picked coed team representing the W. A. A. was a hilarious bit of entertainment for women students and faculty members. Men students were excluded from this contest.

HERE IS WHAT YOU MIGHT CALL OPTIMIST

(International News Service)
CAMDEN, N. J., Feb. 9.—Old John Barleycorn will soon be back in his grave if the prediction of Mrs. A. Haines Lippincott, chairman of the New Jersey law enforcement committee, comes true. A movement to repudiate repeal, she said, "will whisper itself into the 1934 campaign, be a loud speaker in the 1936 campaign and a cyclone in 1940," she added. "The 21st amendment is doomed. It is doomed because it will prove incapable of benefiting the masses and the day of the masses is at hand. Mass good, rather than class money, will demand repeal of the 21st amendment."

Mystery "Snoopers" Are Being Organized

Will Make Attempt To Drive Vice And Crime From Town Of Pottsville

(International News Service)
POTTSVILLE, Pa., Feb. 9.—A secret squad of 50 mystery "snoopers" their identities unknown to each other, is being organized by Claude A. Lord, Pottsville's "new deal" mayor to drive vice and crime out of the city.

The mayor said he will select the operatives at random from among the citizens. The group, to be styled and intelligence division of the mayor's advisory board, will receive no pay and will be used to make private and quiet investigation of complaints.

Mayor Lord said the unknown 50 will wear no badges, will have no authority under the law and will not be empowered to make arrests. He promised, however, to act swiftly on any report submitted to him by any member following an investigation. Should corruption break out among his police force, the mayor pointed out, his operatives could be dispatched to investigate such charges and report their findings to him, unknown to those suspected.

HOSPITAL PROBLEMS WILL BE DISCUSSED

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 9.—Hospital problems throughout the state will be discussed here April 10, 11 and 12 at the 13th annual convention of the Hospital Association of Pennsylvania.

Miss Jessie J. Turnbull, superintendent of Elizabeth Steel Magee hospital here, is president.

Arrangements for the convention are being made by Abraham Osteroff, superintendent of the Montefiore hospital of Pittsburgh, chairman of the program committee.

SEEK TO APPLY GAG RULE ON TAX MEASURE

New Income Tax Measure Looms

Will Be Called Up In Congress Next Week; Bar Amendments

PARTY WHIP IS SWUNG VIGOROUSLY

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—An unprecedented bi-partisan move to apply "gag rule" to the new income tax revision bill in the house faced the opposition of insurgents in both parties today.

With the new measure estimated to raise from $240,000,000 to $300,000,000 a year slated to be called up next week, leaders in both parties reached a tacit agreement to prevent the membership from offering amendments.

The program is understood to have been adopted chiefly to halt a drive for a manufacturer's sales tax as an assault on the bill by the "soak the rich" bloc, a demand for publicity of income tax returns, and an increased tariff-tax on oil.

To Invoke Gag Rule

The Democratic majority of the ways and means committee, with the aid of a majority of the Republican members, decided to invoke the old "gag rule" under which the Hawley-Smoot tariff bill was considered. The right of amendment would be barred to all except the committee.

Rep. Crowther (R) of New York who supported the "gag rule" had planned to offer an amendment to raise a 2 1/2 per cent manufacturers sales tax to raise $400,000,000 a year. He may still have a chance to do it on a motion to recommit the bill.

Rep. Frear (R) of Wisconsin, was urging an amendment for complete publicity of income tax returns and repeal of 3 cent postage, while other members planned to demand an increase in the income tax on the wealthy, now around war-time levels.

Democratic leaders were fearful of tariff amendments being written into the bill in the form of taxes. The party whip was swung in the committee to gain a reversal of the vote by which the tariff on oil was to be raised from 21 to 42 cents. The committee knocked out the tariff by a vote of 14 to 11.

The bill, which was to be introduced today, makes a sweeping revision of the income tax laws. It was primarily directed at the tax evasions disclosed by the senate banking committee.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Engineers' Wives Plan Anniversary

Talk Over Plans For Silver Anniversary Dinner On February 20

A business meeting of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers took place in the city building Thursday afternoon. It was very well attended and a number of important matters were talked over.

A special guest, Sister Kennan, of Carnegie, Pa., an inspector of auxiliaries, was present for the meeting. The organization is looking forward to the three dinner meeting which will take place in the city building February 20 and which will be in celebration of the auxiliary's silver anniversary. Husbands of the members will be guests and the dinner will be served at 6:00 p. m. The G. I. A. was organized 25 years ago on February 11.

DINNER MEETING IS ENJOYED THURSDAY

Mrs. C. W. Thompson, of Eighth street, was hostess to members of the A. A. C. club at her home on Thursday.

A delicious dinner was enjoyed at noon. It was served by Mrs. Thompson to the nine guests seated at a prettily arranged table, aided by her daughter, Miss Neurissa Thompson. Mrs. J. M. Frew was a special guest. In two weeks the group will gather at the home of Mrs. H. S. Gillespie, West Clayton street.

B. W. R. GIRLS

The B. W. R. Girls will be entertained at the home of Mrs. I. W. Taylor, West Madison avenue, next Tuesday evening, with Gladys Hackett as associate hostess.

SEVENTH WARD OLD TIME RESIDENTS

are searching back in their memories for a day or a night when Jack Frost's breath was as cold as it was last night and this morning. And they have to search back a great many years.

According to nine o'clock reports this morning from downtown business establishments, the postoffice, several West Clayton street and Newell avenue residents, the Baltimore and Ohio depot, New Castle Junction and Westfield, the mercury had dropped anywhere from eighteen to twenty-six below zero.

A West Clayton street resident reports that for the first time in 25 years the water pipes in her home were frozen.

NEW MEETING PLACE

Mahoningtown Boy Scout Troop No. 4 held a regular weekly meeting Tuesday night, February 6, in the room at the back of the K. of P. hall. This room is to be the regular troop meeting place from now on. The scouts are painting the room and will soon have it decorated in a regular scout manner.

Interest seemed at its highest point Tuesday night when the new scoutmaster, Mr. Barlett, was introduced to the fellows. He gave the boys some of his ideas on scouting after which a contest in making book-ends was announced. Assistant Scoutmaster "Curley" Paul, of East Brook, announced the President's National Good Turn project which will be given in detail Saturday at noon when the scouts gather at the meeting place. They are asked to be there by 12:00.

The next regular meeting will be next Tuesday evening at 7:00.

WILSON LODGE MEETS.

A business meeting of Mabel Wilson Auxiliary to the B. of R. T. was conducted Thursday evening at Malta Hall. Reports of routine business were presented. The social period which was to have followed was dispensed with.

The next regular meeting will take place February 22.

S. S. CLUB

The S. S. Club will be entertained on Saturday evening by Dorothy Hackett at her home on West Madison avenue.

MRS. RANKIN DIES

Word has been received today of the death of Mrs. William Rankin, at the home of her daughter, at Linesville, Pa. She passed away last night.

Mrs. Rankin was the mother of Harry L. Rankin, of West Cherry street, and although she never resided here, she was well known from her visits. Mr. and Mrs. Rankin were with her when she died.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

Mrs. H. H. McCombs of West Clayton street is confined to her home by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Dempster, Mrs. Leo Bradley and Mrs. Alice Bradley of Akron, O., were Thursday visitors in seventh ward.

Mrs. Winifred Aiken, of Akron, O., returned home Thursday afternoon after a short visit in seventh ward and other parts of New Castle.

Mrs. Bessie Coates Pitzer of North Liberty street returned home this morning after spending the past several days in New Wilmington.

Miss Frances Hyde has returned to her studies at Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa., after spending the mid-semester vacation at the home of her father A. C. Hyde, North Cedar street.

MORE ONE-ROOM SCHOOLS

HARRISBURG, Feb. 9.—According to latest information available in the Department of Public Instruction, Pennsylvania has 12,319 school buildings in use. More than half of them are one-room schools, a total of 6,511. There are 2,585 school districts in the state.

Flashes From Our Night Schools

Mr. Stanley's newly formed classes in scenario and playwriting will run every Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 6:30 to 7:30.

Howard Wylie, instructor in vocal music and dramatics, has announced the casts of the one-act plays which will be given by the dramatics class at the North Street auditorium on February 21, 22, and 23.

The cast of "Soll" the setting of which is a farmhouse near a mountain resort in New York state, follows:

Mrs. Hereford-Carr—Mrs. Frances Cope.

Mary Clark—Mrs. Agnes Selleck.

Evelyn Evans—Marion Wilkison.

Nora—Iva Lord.

At George Washington

An unusual sight will greet visitors to Mr. McCurdy's wood-working classes, which are being conducted as a part of the E. E. R. Two young women, may be found with hammer, saw, and square, busily engaged in constructing a bench, cabinet, or other article. They are Mrs. George Ferver and Mrs. Andrew Dadds, girl scout leaders in the city, who are taking the course in connection with their scout training work, which they will later impart to their girls. Women interested in woodcraft will be welcomed to the classes.

Dr. C. C. Green, head of the Emergency Educational Relief project in the county, stated that night school classes will last as long as funds are available for carrying on the work.

Fourteen teachers constitute the personnel of the teaching staff in the project and the total enrollment runs well over 600 students.

Night school classes are still open to those who wish to register for instruction, and the classes are expected to continue until May, at least.

Expend Nearly $700,000,000 To Operate State And Local Governments Past Year

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent
New Castle News

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 9.—State and local governmental expenditures in Pennsylvania during the fiscal year of 1932 amounted to $681,925,600, or an average of $70.13 per resident, the Bureau of Census reported today.

The figures covered expenditures by the state, the 67 counties, 934 cities, boroughs and towns, 2,713 school districts, 1,574 townships and 372 poor districts and the Delaware river joint commission.

The expenditures were divided as follows: state government, $165,691,108; counties, $80,418,122; cities, boroughs and towns, $219,705,281; school districts, $187,046,491; townships, $19,844,639; poor districts, $8,314,607; and Delaware river joint commission $905,352. The total comprises $457,950,033 for operation and maintenance of general governmental departments; $9,807,635 for operation and maintenance of public service enterprises; $59,006,546 for interest on debt, and $155,161,386 for outlays or permanent improvements.

Three Negroes In Texas Are Put To Death In Chair

(International News Service)
HUNTSVILLE, Tex., Feb. 9.—In rapid succession, three negroes, convicted of murders in Dallas county, went to the electric chair in the state prison here today. All were calm and the executions were completed in less than half an hour.

Jesse Mott, convicted of the hammer slaying of Jones Tatum, filling station attendant, during a holdup, was the first to die. The others were Thurman and Blunt Burkley, brothers, convicted of murdering Kathryn Prince, a school girl, last August.

It is lucky for the bride to throw away a pin on her wedding day, and unlucky to be stuck with one.

Pennsylvania Is Given Million As Unemployed Relief

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Unemployment relief grants by the federal relief administration were announced today for eight states.

The grants, included: Pennsylvania, $1,000,000.

EAGLE IS JEALOUS OF MAIL PLANE

RED LODGE, Mont.—Apparently annoyed by what he considered an unwarranted invasion of his realm, a huge American eagle challenged a single-engine mail plane.

James Atwell, a worker in a conservation corps camp near here, said he saw the eagle doggedly pursuing a mail plane.

EARL INVOLVES DOUG IN SUIT

Disclosure that Douglas Fairbanks, Sr., left, who is being sued for divorce in the United States by Mary Pickford, also will be named in the London divorce action of Lord Ashley, right, heir of the ninth earl of Shaftesbury, against Lady Ashley, above, the former Sylvia Hawkes of the London stage, has been made in London. Fairbanks has indicated that he and Lady Ashley will be married as soon as the divorce decrees are granted.

Reminder of Grimmer "Sport"

"Jack Tars" of the British Navy mix pleasure with a disagreeable duty as they engage in a game of football at the Royal Navy anti-air school in Portsmouth, England, while wearing gas masks. Apparently the grim reminder of what may come does not deter the blue-jackets from enjoying the sport. (Central Press)

Bolters Backed by President

Senator LaFollette, Senator Johnson, Senator Cutting
With the Roosevelt Administration publicly endorsing Senator Hiram Johnson, Progressive Republican of California, for re-election in 1934, in return for his support of the Recovery Program, similar support is predicted for Senator Bronson Cutting, of New Mexico, and Senator Robert M. LaFollette, of Wisconsin, who also bolted to Roosevelt and are up for re-election this year. (Central Press)

Fishing Is Such Fun!

More like a floating Eskimo igloo than a fishing schooner, the good ship Wanderer returns to Boston from the fishing banks with a cargo of Friday dinners and an overcoat composed of 74 tons of ice. For the weight of the ice you must take the word of Seaman Alfonso Doody who's waving at you from the pilot house. (Central Press)

STOCKS

Stock Market Is Irregular

Trading Element Steps To Sidelines Awaiting Market Regulating Bill

MOTOR STOCKS FIRM IN SPOTS

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—The stock market was dull and irregular today as the trading element stepped to the sidelines awaiting the president's recommendations on stock market regulation.

The commodity markets also were somewhat irregular as wheat, corn, and the other grains slipped off fractionally while cotton gained about 25 cents a bale.

Railroad shares were irregular right from the start as New York Central, Illinois Central, Southern Railway and Southern Pacific slipped off moderately.

A mixed price movement was evident in the utility shares with North American, American Water Works and Consolidated Gas holding in a narrow range around their previous close.

Merchandise shares were again in demand with Montgomery Ward and Sears Roebuck moving up fractionally and generally imparting a firmer tone to the chain store group.

Chrysler and General Motors were firm spots in the motor group in light trading, as both issues hung around their previous closing levels.

The mining stocks, notably United States Smelting and American Smelting, were again strong and up about 1 point each.

Strength in the rubber futures market was reflected in demand for the rubber shares, notably Good-year and U. S. Rubber.

AFTER FIRST LESSON

(International News Service)
DENVER.—The first lesson Patrolmen A. A. Hughitt and Ava E. Pyles took in life-saving was credited with saving the life of Leo Minn, 40, of Detroit. Hughitt and Pyles left headquarters in a radio car just after attending the first lesson in a first aid course.

Their first call was to a hotel room, where they found Minn unconscious. They applied their newly-acquired knowledge before taking Minn to a hospital. Physicians said their action saved Minn's life.

Stream-Line Train Coming Wednesday

Due To Arrive In City Over B.
And O. Tracks Wednesday Afternoon

According to the schedule received by local officials of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, the new stream-line train of the Union Pacific is due to pass through New Castle Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 14, at 3:52.

It will leave Chicago at 6:20 and will cover a distance of 425 miles in seven hours and 22 minutes, according to the schedule, an average of 55 miles per hour. The train is constructed to operate at a higher rate of speed, however.

It is a motor driven three-unit train and will be placed on exhibition in Washington, D. C., its destination.

LOVE FINDS WAY TO OUTWIT POLICE

(International News Service)
LANCASTER, Pa., Evelyn Jane Rhinehart, 17, of Mount Joy, was determined to elope with Early Shelley, 23 also of Mount Joy, despite the Pennsylvania state police and their teletype system.

A note, advising of the elopement was found by the girl's parents who immediately notified state police. Messages, requesting they be halted were flashed across the teletype system to all stations in Pennsylvania and Maryland.

The couple returned late last night as Mr. and Mrs. Shelly. They said they were married in Westminster, Md.

MINE SUPERVISOR NEVER ENTERED MINE

(International News Service)
PUEBLO, Colo.—Death recently brought to a close the brilliant career of Andy M. Riddle, 61, superintendent of one of the largest coal mines in Colorado—a mine he never entered.

Riddle's back was broken in a mine accident 33 years ago. Apparently hopelessly crippled, he devoted his life to his helpless legs and trained himself to do many things, including in late years, operation of an automobile. He supervised the work of the Frederick mine, at Valdez, Colo., by means of charts, maps and blueprints in his office.

INDIANS TO EAT FRESH BUFFALO MEAT

GARDINER, Mont.—There will be feasting in the lodges of the Blackfeet and Crow Indians this winter. The Yellowstone Park herd of 1,200 buffalo has been rounded up and 280 animals will be slaughtered to hold the size of the herd down and prevent overgrazing of their range. The meat will be given to Montana Indians.

(International News Service)
BALTIMORE, Feb. 9.—The coldest Feb. 9 in the history of the local weather bureau was recorded at 8 a. m. when the mercury dropped to eight degrees below zero. The weather bureau was established in 1871.

Washington, Feb. 9.—The capital shivered today under an icy blast that sent the mercury down to 6 degrees below zero, with a further drop to 10 degrees forecast for tonight.

Just One Too Many Moves

So Wife Moves For Divorce
And It Is Granted, Lived In 27 Houses In Three Years

(International News Service)
MEDIA, Pa., Feb. 9.—Neighbors used to say "The Dickens don't live here anymore" but now it will be "The Dickens don't live together anymore."

It was always "moving day" for the Dickens family, according to the complaint that won a divorce today for Mrs. Doris Dickens, of Yeading, from her husband, Norman, 28.

The complainant testified that during three years of married life she and her husband had occupied 27 homes in four states.

"Judge," she said, "it was a case of move, move, move, until I felt like a checker on a checker board."

Lumber Dealers To Select Officers

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 9.—Election of officers remained as the chief event on the program of the Retail Lumber Dealers Association 27th annual convention here today.

In some countries it is customary to throw money over the heads of the bride and groom as they come out of church.

Ear clips are being taken by their owners to use as neckties. Some are rhinestone and some tailored, combining silver with gold.

Lawrence County Farms And Farmers

By H. R. McCulloch, County Agent

FARM CROP MEETINGS

On most well drained Lawrence county soils to which lime has been added to neutralize acidity, alfalfa in the clover mixture will grow and do well, was the statement made by E. J. Walters from State College in a series of meetings completed in the county Thursday. Alfalfa is a crop second to none in producing a high class roughage for livestock feed.

There are certain definite requirements which must be met before alfalfa will respond. The land must be in good state of fertility, must be well drained, the soil acidity must be neutralized by use of lime and seed must be inoculated. One of the variegated varieties of alfalfa seed should be used. Alfalfa should not be seeded alone the first time it is seeded on ground not previously growing it. Some of the regular clover seed used should be substituted with alfalfa. A mixture used by many farmers made up of six pounds alfalfa, four pounds red clover, two pounds alsike and from two to four pounds timothy per acre.

The soil should be tested for lime requirement before an attempt is made to grow alfalfa. This can be done by any farmer taking a sample from ten or more places in the field. These should be mixed together and about one-half pint of the mixture left at the agricultural extension office where the test will be made. This is a service available through the extension service to any farmer in the county.

One hundred and thirty farmers attended the meetings this week to hear these talks relative to lime, legumes, soil fertility and general farm crops.

SPRAY RASPBERRIES TO CHECK DISEASE

Raspberry patches of Lawrence county have suffered severe damage from anthracnose and septoria leaf spot during the past two years. Both diseases have spread rapidly in the state.

These two diseases are sometimes confusing to the grower. Ordinarily, the septoria leaf spot occurs early in the season and attacks the stems, leaves and fruit. In some cases one-third of the berry crop has been damaged. Much of the so-called drying of berries is caused by anthracnose.

Both of these raspberry diseases can be controlled by spraying with lime-sulphur. The delayed dormant is the most important spray. When the leaves are out one-eighth of an inch liquid lime-sulphur testing 1.03 specific gravity or about 10 gallons of concentrated lime-sulphur in 100 gallons of water should be applied. Three pounds of wheat flour or one pound of casein should be included as a sticker.

A second spray is necessary when the new canes are 3 or 4 inches high. This spray should test 1.006 specific gravity or approximately 2 gallons of concentrated lime-sulphur in 100 gallons of water. A sticker is required and only the new canes should receive this application.

BREEDING MAY LOWER LAYING FLOCK LOSS

High mortality in the laying pen is probably the weakest link in the poultry chain today.

This mortality often is due to diseases for which definite treatment can be made, but much of it is due to pickouts, prolapse and diseases about which little is known. Practically everything has been blamed. Forced feeding, confinement, brooding and breeding for high egg production have all been accused of causing this high laying flock mortality.

The story of one family illustrates how important breeder selection may be in eliminating this excessive loss. In 1931, K-1338, one of the Single Comb White Leghorn breeders on the poultry plant of the Pennsylvania State college, produced 24 chicks from which 14 daughters were housed and trapped. At the end of the laying year 13 of these 14 daughters were still alive and they averaged 220 eggs per bird.

Eight of these hens were used in the breeding pens in the spring of 1933, and last summer progeny of these eight full sisters, all granddaughters of K-1338, were housed.

On January 18, after approximately six months of production, 81 of these 84 pullets were still living. Of the three losses, one had been a pickout, one was injured and had to be removed and one died. In other words, the total mortality in this family after practically six months of production amounted to 3 1/2 per cent. The mortality and culling in the regular Leghorn pens on the same date amounted to 15 per cent.

PENN STATE CABBAGE RATES ALL-AMERICAN

By application of the principles of heredity there has been developed at the Pennsylvania State college a variety of cabbage known as Penn State Ballhead.

This cabbage recently was awarded national honors when it was selected as an All-American for 1934. It has been so designated. Penn State Ballhead is considered a leader among the late varieties because of uniformity of type, yield and keeping qualities.

The variety began as a single plant selection more than 20 years ago. Since that time it has been carefully line-bred. Altogether, more than 54,000 plants have been studied. Its popularity has increased every year and the past two years more than two tons of seed have been sold to meet the demand.

SELECT CLEAN PLANTS FOR THE BERRY PATCH
Selection of healthy plants is the first step in establishing a good raspberry plantation.

Growers are reminded that there are several virus diseases responsible for the running out of raspberry patches. These are yellow mosaic, red mosaic, streak, and leaf curl. Viruses causing these diseases penetrate both roots and stems of plants and, therefore, are present in young plants where the mother plants are diseased.

Since spraying will not control these diseases the only safe practice is to secure plants from patches which have been systematically observed and from which all diseased plants have been removed. It is better to pay well for clean plants than to accept as a gift plants polluted with disease.

Virus diseases spread very rapidly and it is reasonable to expect increases of from 3 to 5 per cent before plants begin to produce berries. It should be remembered that the mosaics especially are present in wild raspberry plants, often in a form not easily detected. New plantings should be placed 500 to 1000 feet away from wild berry bushes. Red and black raspberry plantings should also be separated by the same distance.

STENOGRAPH STUDENTS

HARRISBURG, Feb. 9.—Since 1916 the number of Pennsylvania high school pupils electing to study stenography has increased from less than 5,000 to almost 40,000, the Department of Public Instruction reports. In 1916 the percentage of all high school pupils preparing to become stenographers was 6.6, and latest available figures show almost 12 per cent receiving this type of instruction. Those studying typewriting now number almost 60,000, or more than 17 per cent of all high school pupils.

MORE PUPILS

HARRISBURG, Feb. 9.—Every type of instruction class in Pennsylvania public high schools showed an increase in the number of pupils enrolled from 1932 to 1933, the Department of Public Instruction reports. In more than 1200 high schools the average of all classes in the state was thirty pupils in 1932 and thirty-two pupils one year later. Some types of classes showed an average increase of but one pupil and others showed as high as six or more on the rolls. However, some individual high schools report classes that almost doubled in size in one year.

REGISTRY DATE

HARRISBURG, Feb. 9.—Registry assessors in boroughs and townships will sit at the polling places this year on March 14. Formerly they had been required to be at the polling place for two days to enroll and register voters. Such voters, however, enroll and register on other days, and up to ten days before the primary by appearing in person at the office of the county commissioners who shall enroll and register the voter the same as registry assessors.

American Air Power Under War Strength

Brig. General William Mitchell Gives House Committee Cheerful Little Ear Full

Says Japan Will Invade Alaska In Case Of War; Urges Building Up Strong Units

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Assailing profiteers and bureaucrats, Brig. Gen. William Mitchell, chief of the army's World War air service, told the house military affairs committee that American air power is unprepared for war.

Although the army has 1,800 planes, he asserted that only 76 are fit to be sent into battle against a modern air force.

Mitchell appealed for creation of a single department of national defense with a single department of air to include army, navy and civil aeronautics.

Urges Big Probe
The same conditions exist in the air service that caused him to appeal to the country years ago and brought about his court martial, he said.

Mitchell told the committee that "merchants" had been in charge of aviation since 1925 and profiteering had been rampant. He urged the committee to make a complete investigation of the air service.

"I got into my fuss because I tried to stop it," he said. "The senate committee's investigation has uncovered much, but I don't think it has begun to scratch the surface yet."

Should Remove Clamps
Mitchell said the army has about 150 pursuit planes, 79 observation planes and 47 bombers fit for battle.

And the navy air service is not an air service because it operates from boats," he said.

He characterized as "criminal" alleged action of the war department in "putting the clamps" on the development of aviation.

Reviewing the establishment of the Morrow board, in 1925, which recommended the 5 year aviation program, Mitchell said:

"The profiteers got busy. Under Coolidge and Hoover, merchants were in control of the government and when you get merchants in control, they plunder the government. All we would do was to let them hang themselves, which they have done in good style."

He asserted that the Morrow board entrenched bureaucrats in charge of aviation.

"These fellows sent their agents here and key-men were put in as assistant secretaries," said Mitchell. "Then they would organize a company on the New York stock exchange, knowing that they would get a contract."

Picturing the future, Mitchell said in an airplane will be built to go to Europe in three to five hours, traveling in stratosphere. He characterized Japan as the most dangerous potential enemy of this country.

Talk about Japan building up her navy, he said, is "bunk." He added: "Japan is building up an air service and building it up to get to Alaska."

CALL OF WILD IS HEARD BY DOGS

(International News Service)
COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo.—The call of the wild has lured Colorado Springs dogs to the mountains west of here, according to John Evans, widely known lion hunter.

Evans said that he had come across tracks obviously made by wild dogs hunting in pairs and threes. They have become so cunning, he said, that he had been unable to catch sight of them.

Announce Members Of Cast For Y. W. Show

ROBERT HOOSE DOROTHY JEAN WALLACE

Next Thursday night, the curtain will rise on the first evening performance of "Up in the Air" the Y. W. C. A. musical comedy to be presented Thursday and Friday evening, February 15-16 in the Cathedral auditorium.

This live-wire, laugh provoking romance of the present day will introduce a more elaborate and involved plot than any before attempted with amateurs. It has long been the belief that anything as heavy as this story was not for practical for inexperienced performers, but the cast here has proven that amateurs can give a surprising account of themselves when given the proper vehicle. The locale of the story is laid in the mountainous country of Arizona and the principal action centers around a young man who, at first, wants to die due to a blighted romance and accordingly hires a gun man to murder him. Then he falls desperately in love and to impress the object of his desires with his bravery he enters a mountain climbing race although it makes him dizzy to stand on a stepladder. A couple of escaped lunatics and some mysterious thieves appear on the scene and pretty soon the fellow is involved in a series of complications that, coupled with his efforts to evade the persistent gunman, furnish two crowded hours of hilarious fun.

Following are the various principals and the roles they will portray: Grizzly, who owns a tourist camp—John E. Turner

Wallie, a timid hero—Bob Hoose Joe Crandell, a lieutenant of the at corps—Charles Crowl

Mrs. Bullfinch, the master of the house—Helen Claybaugh Replegle Henry Bullfinch, a worm that turns—DeLace Cole

Willie, mother's boy—Freddie McKee Scarneck Al, a bootlegger and somebody else—Gomer Emery

Gyp the Dip, a gunman and somebody else—Numa Vidal Rose, who guides the Omaha Hiking Club—Ruth M. Lewis

Mike, an aviator—Tommy Blake Patience, a Quaker maiden—Elsie K. McGeorge

Wanatah, owner of a curio shop—Helen Weingartner Lomah, her assistant—Helen McConagay

LICENSE TIME
HARRISBURG, Feb. 9.—This is license-buying time.

In addition to motor vehicle and motor vehicle operators' licenses in which the Department of Revenue is doing a big business, licenses for dogs, motorboats and resident and non-resident fishermen are being distributed through the county treasurers.

Irvin Pledges U. S. Steel Support For The NRA Program

President Of U. S. Steel Corporation Makes Statement In California

Whole-Hearted Support Will Be Given To Policies And Efforts Of Roosevelt

(International News Service)
DEL MONTE, Cal., Feb. 9.—Pledging whole-hearted support of the steel industry in the national recovery program, W. S. Irvin, president of the United States Steel corporation, Thursday declared President Roosevelt "is making a splendid effort to bring about industrial recovery."

Speaking at the annual convention of the iron, steel and allied industries of California here, Irvin called particular attention to the importance of California plants to the national industry, and then said:

"I have been requested to make a brief statement with respect to the present industrial policies of government under the national recovery act, insofar as it pertains to the steel industry."

"It was in the minds of the legislators charged with the responsibility of framing this legislation that the prices of commodities would, of necessity, be raised to meet the increased cost of production. By reason of the continued curtailed demand for steel products, the price level has not yet been brought up to meet the increased cost of labor.

Must Post Prices.
"The provisions and commercial features of the steel code provide that everyone selling material under the code must post prices at which they are selling material in the offices of the American Iron & Steel Institute at least ten days before sales are made under such posted prices."

"This does not mean that producers get together and fix prices, but that everyone knows at what prices others in the industry are selling their commodities. Naturally, unless one has a superior product, it would be impossible to get a higher price from a customer than the price already posted by a competitor."

Prices In Open.
"It is very similar to two grocery stores on opposite sides of the street selling potatoes or any other commodity."

"The present method simply brings prices out in the open, so that the buyer knows exactly what his competitors are paying for the same character of steel in which he is dealing. This feature is embodied in order that the smaller enterprises may be protected."

"The steel industry has entered whole-heartedly into the support of national recovery. We believe the president is making a splendid effort to bring about industrial recovery and we are giving him every cooperation within our power toward that end."

Fatal Accidents Are On Decrease

Industrial Plants Of State Had Very Fine Record For Year Of 1933

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Feb. 9.—Fatal accidents in Pennsylvania industrial plants during 1933 dropped 3.2 per cent from 1932 but non-fatal mishaps increased 7 per cent, the department of labor and industry's annual report showed today.

A total of 1,029 fatalities were recorded in 1933 as compared with 1,063 in 1932 despite increases in many lines of industrial employment. Non-fatal accidents increased from 84,036 in 1932 to 84,616 in 1933. Coal mining took 448 lives during the year, general industrial work 480 and transportation 101. The accident rate for bituminous mining showed a 4.4 per cent increase from 1932 but anthracite mining accidents decreased 9.8 per cent.

The increase in fatalities in steel mills and other metal industrial plants was 11.8 per cent from 93 to 104, while non-fatal accidents increased 19.3 per cent from 8,745 to 10,434.

Fingerprints Shown To Be Valuable In Identifications

(International News Service)
JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Feb. 9.—The value of fingerprinting was recently demonstrated here when it made possible the identification of a man picked up by police who found him razing into a store window for hours, his mind apparently a blank. Authorities concluded the man was a war veteran after it was found he wore army shoes and carried a number of pictures of uniformed men and scenes from the Philippines and other countries. He was without cards or papers of identification.

Officers Chosen By Y's Men Here

Bara Heads Y. M. C. A. Group, Lockley Vice President; Ready To Function

Officers of the newly formed Y's Men's club were elected and a constitution and by-laws adopted when the members gathered in the Y. M. C. A. for a dinner-meeting last night.

Joseph R. Bara was named president, Elroy Lockley, vice president; Harry McClellan, secretary, and Thomas Smathers, treasurer. Jay Rudolph and Bruce Ewing were named as members of the board of directors for two-year terms and Sid Lockley, Jack Boyles and Alec Samuels for one-year terms.

The organization will function as a service club and later will become affiliated with the International Y's Men's group. Dinner meetings occur every Thursday evening. A group of nearly 20 charter members signed the approved constitution last night.

Bonus Situation Now, Changed, Says Swick

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 9.—In response to a letter from a New Castle resident describing himself as an ex-service man, Representative J. Howard Swick has indicated he would not vote to sustain a presidential veto of the American Legion four-point bill.

The veteran writing to Congressman Swick reminded him that when asked whether he favored the payment of the bonus a couple of years ago, the congressman replied he would vote for the bonus bill but would support the president if he vetoed it. The veteran wanted to know if it would not be consistent for Congressman Swick now to back the president in the event the American Legion bill were passed by congress and vetoed by President Roosevelt.

Mr. Swick pointed out that the only economy efforts made by the Roosevelt administration have been at the expense of veterans and government workers. Dr. Swick, who introduced the American Legion bill in the house, further added that the bill would increase expenditures annually only about $90,000,000, "less than the cost of operating the CWA a single week."

The congressman indicated that in the light of the present program to speed recovery through spending, veterans and dependents should not be made the victims of economy and that hence he would not feel obliged to sustain a presidential veto of the American Legion program.

Irregularities In Motor Truck Contracts Aired

Probe Offer Of Lobbyist Group To Sell Government Contracts On "Influence"

NO BIG OFFICIALS
SO FAR INVOLVED

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The grand jury's investigation of the offers of a group of lobbyists to "sell" war department contracts on the strength of their "influence" reverted today to an inquiry into reports motor truck specifications were altered within the department after they were approved.

Meanwhile government agents were asked to search for a witness, whose name was not divulged. He was believed to be in New York, Detroit or in some other key city. The investigators said he could give important testimony concerning irregularities.

Since the investigation was ordered by President Roosevelt, all witnesses who have appeared and will appear before the jurors—including department officials—had to sign waivers of immunity to possible prosecution before they testified. This indicated the jury's intention to return indictments against the guilty, no matter who they might be.

No Officials Involved
It was not stated whether the missing witness was a War Department official.

Leslie C. Garnett, U. S. district attorney, said, "No War Department officials are involved thus far, but there is no telling how far this inquiry will go."

Attorney General Cummings, whose agents investigated the activities of lobbying at the department and gathered information on which the grand jury's investigation is based, evaded a direct question if any government officials are linked with any of the reported irregularities in the awarding of army contracts.

"That is a difficult question to answer without being misunderstood," he said.
Lieutenant-Colonel B. F. Miller, chief of army motor transport, and Lieutenant-Colonel O. A. Seaman of the militia bureau, appeared before the jurors today. Their testimony concerned the claims of the lobbyists that they could have the motor specifications "changed" to prevent manufacturers who are non-members of their proposed pool "from getting the contracts."

France To Remain On Gold Standard

Despite Upheaval In Government France Will Stick To Gold Standard, Is Reported

(International News Service)
PARIS, Feb. 9.—The new French government will be more determined than even its predecessors to maintain the gold standard, financial experts declared today after studying the complexion of the Doumergue cabinet. Finance Minister Germain-Martin is unalterably opposed to abandoning gold.

Only Five Seek Shelter Last Night

Only five wayfarers sought shelter from the below zero blast at the city jail last night according to "Little Joe" who "janitors" at the city police station. Only two others were placed in jail, both of whom were arrested on charges of intoxication.

Soviet Russia Well Protected

Strength Of Soviet Red Army Is Shown In Moscow Demonstration
Today

50,000 SOLDIERS
MARCH IN REVIEW

By LINDSEY PARROTT
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

MOSCOW, Feb. 9.—Klementy E. Voroshilov, Soviet commissar for war, told the All Union Soviet congress today that Russia is an "unapproachable fortress" ready to annihilate those who trespass her borders.

Then, in historic Red Square, he staged an impressive military demonstration to prove it.

Strive For Peace.
In an order extending greetings to the congress and to the red army, Voroshilov said:

"Completely reconstructed, the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics is now an unapproachable fortress. The red army is striving for peace. It does not intend to attack any foreign territory. But our swords are sharp and those who trespass our borders will be crushed to annihilation."

Delegates to the congress, who have listened for two weeks to the earnest pledges of the government that it will defend Soviet frontiers against all aggressors and all hazards, were then shown an impressive section of the nation's military strength in a two-hour demonstration in the Red Square.

50,000 in Line
More than 600 tanks were included in the procession, which passed the reviewing dignitaries at 20 miles per hour. The heaviest of these mounted two anti-aircraft guns, a Howitzer and machine guns.

Likewise in the parade of martial power were a hundred tractorized siege and anti-aircraft guns equipped with searchlights and a range finders.

Lead by Voroshilov, 50,000 soldiers and sailors from the Moscow garrison and armed civilians, including battalions of women, filed by the tomb of Nicolai Lenin.

Enormous Amount Of Back Taxes Is Shown By Report

Caslin Gives Data On Amounts Delinquent

Steady increase in delinquent county and poor taxes since 1929 is shown by the annual report of County Controller R. C. McCaslin, which is now being prepared. In 1929 the delinquent tax amounted to only $12.95. In 1930 it was $217.60; in 1931, $5,258.05; in 1932, it was $7,258.24, and in 1933 it totaled, $189,173.22. The 1933 delinquent tax duplicate is in the hands of the collector and a good portion of the amount indicated is likely to be collected.

County and poor tax liens filed for 1930 amount to $11,612.71; for 1931, $40,825.67; for 1932, $131,430.74. Seated and unseated land tax delinquent amounts to $15,024.76. "The tax liens filed for 1932 present a striking illustration of the effects of the depression. Many people who had up until that time been able to pay their county and poor taxes, found it impossible."

The delinquent taxes noted above do not include delinquent city and school taxes, borough taxes and township taxes. If they were all added together it would present a staggering total. There is no way of getting these totals without going over all the books. This is now being done by a CWA worker under the direction of state college, and it will be possible to get some data later.

Forty Hour Service Starts At Hospital

Forty Hour Devotion In New Castle Hospital Opens
This Morning

This morning at 9:00 o'clock, a solemn high mass in the St. Anthony chapel of the New Castle hospital, marked the opening of the forty hour devotion. Blessed Sacrament will be exposed all day, Rev. Fr. Francis Stifter, announced today.

The celebrant at the mass this morning was Rev. Fr. A. L. Farina, of the St. Vitus church; Rev. L. A. Farina, of the Regina Coeli church in Pittsburgh, Pa., acted as deacon; Rev. H. A. Turlik, St. Elizabeth church in Starford, Pa., sub-deacon and Rev. Fr. Francis Stifter, chaplain of the local hospital, was the master of ceremonies.

This evening at 7:00 o'clock, there will be benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The forty hour devotion will close Sunday evening with solemn repossession of the Blessed Sacrament at 7:00 o'clock.

ELECTION RULES
HARRISBURG, Feb. 9.—Inquiries have been received at the election bureau of the Department of State for information on how independent parties may participate in the primary. Only the regular parties may take part in the uniform primary. Other parties set up by independent bodies of citizens may have the names of candidates placed on the election ballot in November by filing the proper nomination papers furnished by the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

You mustn't tell Willie, but old-timers lived longer, and at his age they were sewed up in their winter underwear.

Senior High School News

Home Economics Now Engages Large Group

Classes Expanded As New Semester Begins—Start First Projects

The Home Economics department of the high school, which includes the cooking and sewing classes is greatly enlarged this semester. The classes are so crowded that the laundry room is being used for a recitation room. Sewing machines are also greatly needed; an effort is being made to secure several more.

The students are beginning on their first projects and it is expected that many interesting ones will be produced. Each girl is required to make a list of her personal effects, and the budgets are being planned accordingly.

Group Is Honored By Senatus Romanus

Certificates For Outstanding Work Are Bestowed; Initiate Members

The Senatus Romanus held the first meeting of the new semester on Monday. The meeting was very important as new members were initiated and certificates were presented to those who had won honors in Latin for the year recently completed.

A new mode of initiating the new members was tried out. Each candidate was brought before the club and asked several questions in Latin. He was then required to answer the questions in perfect Latin. The new members were: Jean Tinsley, Sally Norris, Betty Lou Orr;

Frank Taylor, James Cordella, Marion Ramsey, Margaret McCracken, and Neil Houston. Certificates for honors in Latin were awarded to these members and also to the following: Second-year Latin: Pauline Manos, James Thompson and Jane Bryan. Third-year Latin: Edythe Cowden and Ise Sonnenborn. Medals had previously been awarded to the three who had won honors. They were Heber Baldwin, Gertrude Shaffer and Lena Silverman.

Hi-Y Club Active, Opens Church Work

The Hi-Y club held their regular meeting Monday evening with the president, William Bovard, presiding. The chief attraction of the evening was a speech delivered by Harry McClelland, boys' supervisor of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. McClelland spoke on the Bible.

A membership committee was appointed, consisting of Dave Rowland, for the sophomores, Ed Scholtsburg, for the juniors, and Wallace Byers, for the seniors. On Sunday evening, February 4, at the Highland U. P. church, the Hi-Y began a series of programs on "War." The speakers of the evening included Ralph Davies, Herman Kitchens and Walter Conover. They discussed the horrors and losses of war.

'Citizenship' Theme Of Opening Assembly

Students Are Speakers In Semester's First Chapel On Tuesday

The first chapel program of the new semester was presented to the students on Tuesday. This program was sponsored by the Student Council members of last semester and featured Ralph Gardner, faculty manager of athletics, who was in president of the council. Mr. Gardner spoke on "Athletics" enlarging on the points of school spirit and scholarship.

Jane Bechtel explained the composition and functions of the Student Council followed by Ralph Davies, who presented an interesting speech on "The Duties of Citizenship." Donna Jean Beall discussed the "Privileges of Citizenship" while the concluding address was delivered by Heber Baldwin, president of the graduating class of January 1934. He read the Athenian oath pledged to the youth of Athens upon reaching the age of citizenship. The assembly was then dismissed by Robert Allen.

A similar program was presented the following day to the members of the lower classes.

School Attendance Now Totals 2,019

Enrollment figures at the Senior High School today showed 2,019 students in attendance at the classes. Since the new semester began the total has increased almost daily.

There are 1,013 boys and 1,006 girls, almost an even number, in attendance now.

Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard says that over a dozen prisoners in the county jail have signified their intention of entering pleas when sentence court is held on next Saturday. The pleas will be prepared by District Attorney Mont L. Alley. By pleading guilty the prisoners often get a shorter sentence, as it saves the county the trouble and expense of a trial. It is also of advantage to the prisoner as he can begin serving his sentence at once, in place of waiting for the action of the March term of court.

Indications are that when a compilation of figures showing the total valuation of county property is made this year, that it will be less than last year. How much less remains to be seen. If it should amount to considerable it will mean that the tax millage will have to be increased. In fact it is likely that the tax millage will be increased even if the total valuation should remain the same.

Testimony was taken at court yesterday in the case of Alexander Miles against Attorney J. Clyde Gillfillan. The trouble grew out of a dispute arising over the construction of a storehouse built for Miles by Gillfillan on North Mercer St.

Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard secured lumber for scaffolding in the county jail yesterday. The scaffolding is needed in the cleaning operations, which are being done by prisoners. All the walls and cells are being scrubbed.

TAX MILLAGE IN ALTOONA BOOSTED

(International News Service)

ALTOONA, Pa., Feb. 9.—Altoona's city council today boosted the city tax rate from 7½ to 9 mills for 1934.

The action followed the paring of real estate valuation late last year.

Thunder and lightning during the marriage ceremony is a bad omen.

County Commissioner A. E. Conner stepped into the county jail yesterday in company with Sheriff Edward Pritchard to make an inspection. A few minutes afterward a warrant was served on him, charging him with breaking and entering the county jail. He was taken before the Kangafo court conducted by the prisoners, where he was told of his rights and asked if he wanted an attorney. However he was informed that even if he wanted an attorney he was likely to be convicted as they "had the goods on him." Conners decided to plead guilty, and the judge fined him one dollar, which Conners gracefully paid. Then it was explained to him that the prisoners must have money to buy their cigarettes and tobacco, and the only way they can get it is by arresting visitors to the jail.

John Moez, Sr., father of John Moez, Jr. slayer of Rose Balogh, in company with Attorney Samuel L. Clark, visited the accused murderer today in the county jail, where a long conference was held. Mr. Moez, the father who is a young looking man, came all the way from California to assist his son in his defense when the case comes up for trial at the March term of court. In

NEW CASTLE TO PLAY NEW BRIGHTON TONIGHT

SECTION RIVALS TO TANGLE HERE

New Castle Hopes To Cinch Section Three Championship With Victory

New Brighton Looms As Only Threat To Stop New Castle; Prelim At 7 O'clock

Section Three supremacy is at stake tonight as New Castle High school basketball team tangles with the strong New Brighton High school quintet at the George Washington Junior High gym floor. The Reserve teams of both schools will play the preliminary game starting at 7 p. m. New Castle and New Brighton played a bumper 29 to 28 game at the valley floor several weeks ago. Coach Phil Bridenbaugh will present his strongest lineup tonight in an effort to snatch the important decision.

There is only one team in Section Three liable to stop the mad rush of the Bridenbaugh team toward another sectional title, and that team happens to be New Brighton. That 29 to 28 victory at New Brighton was a rather hollow affair when one comes to think about it. Archie "Merriwell" Ridley won the game with a foul in the final few seconds when the captain of the New Brighton team pulled a "prize boner," by asking for a time out. New Brighton really had an edge on New Castle that night.

Visitors Have Edge
New Castle hopes to score an impressive victory over the Rourkmen at the New Castle floor. However, this is going to be more of a task than one would imagine from where you sit.

For example—New Castle was hard hit by semester rulings, and lost two of its star forwards, Archie Ridley and Russ Battley.

New Brighton was more fortunate and didn't lose any of the first team. They will have the same lineup that gave New Castle a big scare in the valley. They are going to be a smoother working machine and will know the tricks.

The New Castle team will do well to take this game quite seriously because it's not "in the bag" by any means. It is going to require a lot of basketball playing to upset the visitors.

Strong Lineup
Ralph Fields the youth who almost speeled disaster for New Castle in the first game will be back in the lineup and will play a forward. This youngster dropped in three or four pretty field goals in the last half of the game at New Brighton. His running mate tonight will be Vukich an improved player. The pivot man who will oppose Miles will be Keppen, a dangerous shot and good floor worker. The guard posts will be taken care of most capably by Capo and Moulter, both veterans of three years and cracker-jack guards.

The New Castle lineup will have Kelly and Reiber at the forwards, Miles at center and Kominic and Ostrosky at the guards. Maybe that defeat at the hands of Massanutten was a good thing the other evening, it may have taken some of the "cocksureness" out of the boys, and perhaps they will play a better brand of basketball. Taking it all for all, this is the feature game of the year at the George Washington High floor and the fans are asked to try and get to the gym early, because indications point to a packed house, and then the early birds see a good game when the New Castle Reserves and New Brighton Reserves tangle, so get an early supper.

Look For Big Crowd
Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner was worried today for fear there would not be room enough for all of the fans who will want to see this big attraction. The doors will open at 6:30 p. m., and the good looking ticket takers will be ready to grab the pasteboards shortly thereafter.

New Castle High team polished off the rough places Thursday afternoon with a light signal drill. The Massanutten Academy game served as a "warm-up" for New Brighton.

Following are the probable lineups of the two teams:

New Castle. New Brighton.

Reiber.....F.....Fields
Kelly.....F.....Vukich
Miles.....C.....Keppen
Kominic.....G.....Capo
Ostrosky.....G.....Moulter

Phils And Macks To Play Sundays

Schedule Reveals 12 Sunday Games For Philadelphia Teams

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 8.—Diamond fans will have Sunday baseball every Sabbath day during the major league season this year unless it rains, it was revealed today as the official 134 schedule of the American league was announced.

The National league Phils and the Athletics will play 12 games each during the season on Sundays. Even on holidays, one or the other team will see action in one of the local parks as the Nationals stay in town on Independence Day and Labor Day while the Athletics fill the program on Decoration Day.

The Athletics open their season at home on April 17 against the Yankees, who come in at that time for a three-day sojourn. On Sunday, April 2, the Mackmen meet the Senators from Washington for their first Sabbath game. From that date on, only rain will prevent the baseball fans of Philadelphia from enjoying their sport.

Twelve Saturday and 12 Sunday dates are allotted to each of the eight teams in the American league. The Red Sox and Senators open the season in Washington on April 16, with the other clubs not getting under way until a day later. The official closing will be Sept. 30.

Olympics Defeat Mercer Firemen

Olympics basketball team handed the Mercer Firemen a 30 to 24 defeat last night at the New Castle armory floor. The Mercer Firemen led at the half 17 to 14. The last half stand of the Olympics was too much for the visitors from Mercer county.

Valle and Elser led the Olympics in scoring with 19 of their points. For the Mercer Firemen the playing of Ringer and Stowe was the best.

Co-Eds Win Over Women Faculty At Westminster

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 9.—It may have been well under the zero mark outside the Westminster College gym last night, but in the confines of the spacious building the women folks of the college were working themselves into a heat. The Co-Eds defeated the Women Faculty members 28 to 10 in the annual basketball contest, and what a game, what a game. It was riotous laughter from start to finish.

Misses McKnight, Jones, Cone and Means were the shining lights in the lineup of the Co-Eds, making 23 of the points, while Miss Love led the way with 10 points for the complete total followed the Women Faculty. According to Professor Robert X. Graham, who was guilty of witnessing the game, Coach John D. Lawther did not find any new material, but the Titan coach did get some very fine ideas on basketball and how it should and should not be played.

SECTION 18 GAMES
Two Section 18 games will be played tonight with Slippery Rock traveling to Mars, and Karns City playing at Zellenople. Union and Evans City played their game last night with Union winning 27 to 23.

Union Defeats Evans City In League 27 To 21

Union High Advances Another Step Nearer Section 18 Title; Extra Period Game

MORRISON, BORON STARS OF GAME

With the mercury falling fast and the weather well below the zero mark Union High School basketball team made things hot for the Evans City High basketball team last night down at the Evans City floor 27 to 21 in a Section 18 game that required an extra five-minute period. It was the tenth straight victory for the Dave Boyd machine. Another stitch was put in the section title flag by the Unionites. The game was one of the best of the year at Evans City.

The Unionites jumped into a commanding lead of 12 to 4 at the end of the first quarter, with Boron and Morrison leading the way. At the end of the half the Boydmen held to a 16 to 10 lead, and things looked rather safe.

By the time the end of the third period was reached Union clung to a lead of 20 to 14, and still it looked like an easy victory. But, it was just one of those things that happens, and in the fourth and final period, the Union team couldn't score for love nor money and Evans City went ahead to tally eight points and sew the old ball game up tighter than a bass drum. The score at the end of the regulation game was 22-22.

Union Comes Through
In the extra period Morrison annexed a foul for Union, and Monico and Schas made field goals for the Blue and White passers that gave them five points and enough to win. The Evans City team was held to a solitary point by fine guarding on the part of Wayne White and Paul "Blond Terror" Morrison, with Painter having a successful charity throw.

It was a close and exciting finish, but class told, and so Union walked off with the victory. In foul tossing the Union team really outdid themselves, making 5 out of 6, for a record for the locals, and Evans City only breezed in 5 out of 8. Three games will also be played next Tuesday as follows—Center and Harmony in the first game, Calvary and Oak Grove in the second game, and Mt. Hermon and Savannah in the third tilt.

No Advance For Willigs Game

There is a rumor going around New Castle among the sport fans that the Tin City Rovers are going to charge 35 cents for the game next Monday night at Senior High with the famous Willigs, this is not true according to word from Business Manager Raymond "Mickey" McBride today. The price of admission will remain at 25 cents for everybody, just as for the Babe Didrikson game. The regular season tickets printed by the Tin City management will not be honored at the Willigs game.

County Church League Results

NEXT GAMES ON TUESDAY, FEB. 13

Shenango-Slippery Rock church league basketball teams played three games this week, with the Savannah team upsetting the Neshannock church team 18 to 17 in a well played game. The Mt. Hermon boys nosed out the Calvary team 22 to 21, in another tight ball game, and the St. Marys team walloped the Oak Grove team 28 to 6.

The league managers and officials will hold an important meeting next Tuesday evening, February 13 at which time representatives of all the teams are asked to be present. ## Levinisky And Massera Will Fight Tonight

King Levinisky Favored To Beat Pittsburgh Heavy In New York City Ring

By DAVIS J. WALSH International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Charley Massera, Pittsburgh contender, and Mr. King Levinisky, the voice of the Stockyards will engage in a very gripping encounter of ten rounds at Madison Square Garden tonight, the event being alluded to as a heavyweight fight of considerable importance. At least, Madison Square Garden says it is, the idea being that Levinisky is about to climb over a couple of Humpty Dumplings into the challenger's end of a heavyweight championship gate in June.

In any case, the fight will be very important to Massera. He has guaranteed the majestic one sum of $5,000 for the evening and the last idealist who tried that with anybody in the Garden wound up with a check for $3.15. This, of course, was no more than right, because, in making the guarantee, the fighter became the promoter and the promoter merely the landlord.

Levinisky Favored
Anyhow, the royal fish peddler is either going to make his play to get into the money with this one or start studying up to a mediocrity. He has almost made it several times and wants all his friends to know that he isn't discouraged. And, at that, he has looked the part of a pretty good prize fighter at times. He had Dempsey down once. He had Sharkey down twice or more, the first of these being almost ample. That is Mr. Sharkey finally got up but never knew why; in fact, the chances are he never knew exactly why he was down. This being part of the Levinisky technique, his Sunday wind up punch always hits them the second time around.

He ought to hit Massera tonight and, while I'd hate to be wrong about this, it stands to reason that anybody who donates $5.00 for the privilege is eminently entitled to it.

Managers Will Meet Tonight

Baseball Managers Will Gather At News At 7:30 O'clock For Fields Improving

If plans of the CWA and other officials do not go awry, the baseball players of New Castle are going to have some first class diamonds to play on this summer. Tonight at 7:30 o'clock Ed Fritz, sports editor of The News, will meet with all representatives of the various teams in New Castle. The meeting will be held at The News office.

It is imperative that all teams wanting work done on their playing fields to have a representative present at the meeting. Saturday morning the CWA officials and Director of Public Parks Joe Alexander will have a meeting on improvements to the various baseball fields throughout the city.

Several groups of CWA workers will be put to work in all parts of the city and by summer, there should be a number of fine baseball fields, in New Castle and it is hoped that there will be at least one fine field in each of the wards in the city. All baseball managers are asked to make an effort to get to The News tonight at 7:30 p. m.

Agenda Club Tops Warren 20 To 11

New Castle Agenda Club basketball team won from the fast Warren, Ohio quintet Wednesday night at the Youngstown Armory floor 20 to 11. The locals led all the way. J. Solomon and H. SAYS FIGHTS WITH
BURKE HIS HARDEST

Although Tom McMahon captured a popular decision over Jess Willard who later became world's heavy-weight champ, it was not his hardest fight, according to the former "Bearcat." In fact he said today he couldn't tell which was his hardest fight as "I had three 'hard fights' with Sailor Burke, anyone of which could be characterized as 'my hardest fight'."

Twenty years ago McMahon beat a popular decision over Jess Willard who later became world's heavy-weight champ, it was not his hardest fight, according to the former "Bearcat." In fact he said today he couldn't tell which was his hardest fight as "I had three 'hard fights' with Sailor Burke, anyone of which could be characterized as 'my hardest fight'."

After leaving the Albany ring, he took a bath, received a rubdown and was entrained for Pittsburgh. He arrived Friday, went to Prince Edward gym took a rubdown and was examined for the fight the following day.

"And what a socking Sailor Burke gave me that night," said Tom. The fight was so hot they were doctored for the St. Nicholas rink in New York for a second scrap.

Tom recalls he knocked the sailor down in the first round. Someone cut the light wires and before the fight could be resumed the sailor came to.

Tom knocked the sailor down again in the second round and "the same chap must have cut the wires again because they went out again. Tom won the fight and they were matched for a third fight at Pittsburgh.

The third fight was vicious. The sailor gave up fighting after the bout and is now a detective on the Elevated railroad in New York, according to word received by McMahon.

"I think he was the best boxer I ever saw," said Tom.

Jimmie Dime is showing Sammy Crescetta how to punch the right way in the hope of getting him somewhere this summer. Scoots Hood can recall the days when Tony Ross first broke into the fighting game. Paris Cangey is improving in a Rochester, Pa. hospital. He made some sensational fights not only here but in numerous cities. Eddie Weygant is still a resident of Ohio. Big Dan Dalley is in the trucking business in the eastern part of the state. Dal Hazen who formerly ran a restaurant in Apple Alley and knew 'em all from John L. to George Chip is now in an East Street restaurant. Joe Chip is at Pottsville, Pa., and Babe Picato is in California.

Johnny Jennings, South Sider, hove into sight. Jennings fought as a lightweight. He is now a cruiser-weight as he weighs about 175 and intends to loosen up soon and take off some weight. Jackie King and he made the ideal fight at the bowl. In the ring they were bitter enemies but outside the ropes they were pals. Another hard fight Jennings had was with Frankie Bjorski of Erie.

"Yes they had a lot of good fights here and none were any better than in which Henry Firpo appeared," said Phil Greer who bobbed around a corner. "None of them had much on him. Whenever he came into town the fans felt sure there would be a good battle. Some of the boys wanted him to win and others wanted him to lose. He fought for the N. B. A. middleweight championship and was runner-up.

Sportsmen To Meet Tuesday

Lawrence County Sportsmen's association will hold a meeting at 8 p. m. Tuesday at the Elks Club at which time officers will be nominated for 1934. Nominations will be made for president, vice president, secretary and treasurer and two directors. Dr. Thomas E. Winecoff of the board of commissioners, Harrisburg, will lecture on wild life of Pennsylvania. Motion pictures of wild life will also be displayed.

ST. ELIAS TO PLAY
St. Elias leads the B division church league but their grip on first place will be endangered Saturday night at the Y when Mahoning Presbyterians tackle them. They will clash in the first game of the night. Tifereth Israel will oppose St. Michaels and Sacred Hearts will take on Epworth M. E. in A division games. There will be three games in the Boys League, Saturday afternoon. The schedule follows: Streaks vs Wampum Juniors, Rangers vs Devil Dogs and Smoothies vs Trojans.

Final Approval Is Expected For School Addition

All Plans Meet With State Approval; Now In Hands Of Federal Officials

O. K. AND LOAN IS EXPECTED SHORTLY

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—Only a final O. K. from federal officials at Washington is awaited until a large number of local unemployed men are put to work again building a new two-story 18 room wing to the Lincoln high school.

At the regular meeting of the Ellwood City Board of Education in their rooms of the Lincoln high school last night, Secretary of the Board G. Blaine Hancher and Architect W. G. Eckles of New Castle announced that the final approval from federal officials is expected very shortly. All the plans had been approved by the state department some time ago. The application for funds and plans of the Ellwood City school district for the new wing, were among the first to be taken up and considered by federal officials. It was reported. Definite word is expected anytime.

If the new wing is built pupils of the Central school will be transferred here, and the old building turned over to the city. The application for funds and plans of the Ellwood City school district for the new wing, were among the first to be taken up and considered by federal officials. It was reported. Definite word is expected anytime.

The athletic committee reported that fine progress was being made on the sodding of Lincoln Field and preparing a practice field. The drainage system has been installed and has proven a success. CWA workers are ready to put on the top layer of soil on the field. Grass is expected to be sown the latter part of the month. School officials are awaiting warm weather so as to be able to roll the field. Work is progressing nicely on the stone wall along Fourth street, and also on the new bleachers. The board decided to send away for some special lumber for a certain part of this work.

Missionary Group Members Meet

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—With Mrs. Earl McDaniel, Mrs. Roy McDaniel, Mrs. Warren Turner, Mrs. Homer Harsman, Mrs. Mary Harsh, and Mrs. Carl Mathews, as special guests, eighteen members of the Mary Rugh Missionary society of the Hickory Knell Church of God gathered at the home of Mrs. E. E. Gallaher of the Zelenople road Wednesday for the regular meeting.

Quilting and sewing were in order throughout the day and at noon the kuesters partook of a delicious luncheon served by the hostess assisted by her daughters, Florence and Frances.

Mrs. Cecil Crans was the leader of the study period. Plans were made to hold an apron party sometime during the month with a committee meeting to make arrangements on Monday evening.

The next meeting will take place on Wednesday, March 7, at the home of Mrs. Edward McKenna of the Zelenople road.

Miss Mae Price Is Honored By Friends

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—As a courtesy to Miss Mae Price, who will be a bride of Feb. 14, Miss Margaret Schott entertained a number of friends at her home on the New Brighton road last night. The affair was in the form of a shower.

The evening was whiled away informally with chat and games as a result of which Miss Jean Van Horn received a prize. At a later hour the hostess, assisted by her mother, served a delicious luncheon.

Those present on the occasion were the Misses Hazel Garwig, Lois Gillespie, Jane Van Horn, Katherine Hollinbeck, Mary Winer, Ann Pawol, Mrs. John Greenham, Mrs. Bert Price, the honor guest, the hostess and her mother, Mrs. H. V. Schott.

Mrs. Habart Has Meeting Of Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—Thursday Evening Bridge club met with Mrs. Herbert Habart last night on the New Castle road.

At the close of two tables of bridge, Mrs. Fred Woods received the high score prize. A luncheon was served later by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Thomas. Mrs. Frank McKim will entertain the club in two weeks.

ORANGE LADIES

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—Ladies of the Loyal Orange lodge will hold their regular meeting tonight in the Schweiger hall. All members of the first degree team are to meet in the lodge rooms at seven o'clock for practice. The second degree team will rehearse immediately after lodge.

School Board Has Meeting Thursday

Board Of Directors Dispose Of Monthly Business Here Thursday Night

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—Board of Education of Ellwood City transferred some funds in their bank account to meet some current bills of their monthly meeting last night in the Lincoln High school.

A matter of paying tuition on a certain pupil was deferred until an opinion was given by the board's attorney W. J. Moffatt, of New Castle.

Upon motion of Director H. M. Cresswell, chairman of the finance committee, the board voted to pay the annual premium on the bond for former Tax Collector T. A. E. McConahy, who still has some taxes to turn in according to the board. The premium is to be paid to the Maryland Casualty Company.

The request of M. A. Groden of this city to have the board rent the high school gym on Mondays and Thursdays from 9 to 10 a. m. to 30 local men who wish to take up physical culture, was passed by the board upon recommendation of the Education committee.

Superintendent of Schools Vaughn R. DeLong and a number of the board are planning to attend a special meeting in Beaver Valley on Feb. 21 where various reports of school districts will be given. All the school superintendents are to deliver talks on this occasion.

Kensington Club Has Fine Meeting

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—Priscilla Kensington club met at the home of Mrs. John Aiken on Summit avenue Thursday afternoon for its regular meeting.

The day was spent in doing needlework and chat. Later in the day a luncheon was served by the hostess with the assistance of her mother, Mrs. Henderson.

The club will meet again in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Robert Curry in Ewing Park.

Taxpayers Of Fourth Ward Will Meet

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—The taxpayers of the fourth ward will hold an important meeting in the north side school building tonight for the purpose of discussing the proposed municipal building and swimming pool which the local people will vote on Tuesday. The meeting is scheduled for 7:45.

Happy Hour Class Meets Thursday

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—Twenty-five members of the Happy Hour Class of the Slippery Rock Presbyterian church assembled last evening at the home of Mrs. William Weingartner of the New Castle road for the regular meeting with Mrs. Jessie Weingartner and Mrs. Jas. Friday, associate hostesses.

Mrs. Harland Gillespie led the devotional period and Mrs. Roy McDaniel the business sessions. Arrangements were formulated to hold a memorial service on Sunday, February 18 for Mrs. Paul Elliott wife of a former pastor and whose death occurred just two years ago.

Games and contests were then in order and after the serving of an appetizing luncheon by the hostesses adjournment was taken to meet again Thursday evening, March 9.

M. Y. B. Members Have Fine Meet

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—Mrs. Ralph White received the members of the M. Y. B. club last night at her home on Franklin avenue. Mrs. Jack Frazer was a special guest on the occasion.

Two tables of 500 were in play during the evening at the close of which Mrs. Charles Anderson was presented with high score award. Mrs. Frazer received the guest award.

At an appointed hour the hostess assisted by Miss Virginia White served a dainty luncheon much to the pleasure of those present. Mrs. Anderson invited the club to meet at her home on Feb. 19.

Club Entertained By Miss Russell

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—Miss Lillian Russell was a charming hostess to the members of her club last night at her home on Wayne avenue.

Bridge was chief diversion of the evening with two tables in play, at the conclusion of which the hostess, assisted by Miss Helen Stonelpher, served a delectable menu.

Mrs. Harold Sampson will be hostess to the club in two weeks at her home on Lawrence avenue.

Two Local Scouts Receive Highest Honors Thursday

John Luca And ohn Popescu Become Eagle Scouts At Court Of Honor

CLEVER PROGRAM DELIGHTS AUDIENCE

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—The highest possible honor in scouting was paid two Ellwood City Boy Scouts, John Luca and John Popescu, of the Shelby troop, last night at a special Court of Honor held in the Shelby auditorium. Chairman of the Court John Lindgren presided. The many parents and friends of the Boy Scouts witnessed the impressive ceremony and the special program later. This was part of the program arranged in observance of the 24th anniversary of scouting in America, at Ellwood City. A large number of merit badges were awarded on this occasion to qualified boys.

At the close of this program a clever program and entertainment was presented by the Boy Scouts. Featuring this was comic quartet from the Shelby troop which kept the assemblage in a roar of laughter until the close.

Tomorrow the local Boy Scouts will gather in the Lincoln auditorium to hear a special message by President Roosevelt. On Sunday the scouts will hold a union service in one of the local churches.

Ellwood City May Get New Armory

Councilman Says $75,000 Will Be Allotted To Ellwood; Borough To Donate Site

COMMITTEE WILL INVESTIGATE MATTER

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—If armories are to be built about the state from the two million dollar fund appropriated for this purpose by the government, Ellwood City, which is in dire need of one, will get a new one if any action or aid is needed from the local borough council, was the opinion of that body at their regular meeting in the city building last night.

The matter was brought to the attention of the city council by Councilman William McGilincy who exhibited an article in the National Guards magazine, stating that a sum of $75,000 was allotted to Ellwood City for the construction of a new armory, which would mean a complete motorization of the local 107th Field Artillery. Mr. McGilincy stated that the site for the armory must be donated by the city.

The site suggested was about four acres of borough property East of the old Harmony right of way, just about opposite the picnic grove in Ewing Park. This would make an ideal site, as it is far enough away from any homes, and its rock foundation would make excellent gun and target ranges. It was pointed out that should the armory be built here, the city would be given greater police protection. At present the armory is located a little over a mile out of the borough limits in Frisco.

In order to aid the movement here President Alex Main ordered the Rules and Regulations committee to investigate the entire situation and report any progress made, back to council.

LADIES AID

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church held its regular meeting Wednesday night in the church rooms. An election of officers was held which resulted as follows: President, Mrs. R. N. Snedden; vice president, Mrs. Paul Winter; secretary, Mrs. Chester Hall; treasurer, Mrs. H. H. Reynolds. Plans were formulated for a roast beef supper. A delicious luncheon was served later in the evening. The society will meet again on February 15 at the home of Mrs. Thomas Lee. Mrs. Roy Maxwell and Mrs. Harrison will be associate hostesses on the occasion.

Club Meets With Mrs. Ralph White

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—Mrs. Ralph White was hostess to the R. Q. Club Thursday afternoon at her home on Franklin avenue with 16 present.

Following a delicious luncheon at noon three tables of 500 were in play, at the close of which Mrs. Marie Morrow and Mrs. Stella Haswell received the high score awards. Mrs. Reed Hall will entertain the club in three weeks at her home on Todd avenue.

Regular Meeting Held By Council

Routine Matters Transacted At Monthly Session In City Building

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—Borough council of Ellwood City held its regular monthly meeting last night in the city building with all but Councilmen J. E. Powell, Clyde B. Hook and James P. Menecie present.

The recommendation of the rules and regulations committee, headed by Councilman William McGilincy, to have the rule requiring at least a two-thirds vote to pass on a labor or purchasing of material project, changed to a majority vote, was passed by council last night.

Upon recommendation of the finance committee, headed by A. J. Howell, the bond of the borough treasurer was reduced from $50,000 to $15,000. Rev. H. D. Maxwell is the new city treasurer. The committee felt that it was necessary to pay a large premium on the former bond, when the treasurer actually handles very little cash. His work is chiefly accepting and approving reports of the borough clerk and tax collector.

Council accepted reports of Tax Collector M. L. Cunningham and former Collector E. B. Moyer of additional delinquent tax collections, and ordered to be placed on file.

According to the monthly report of the local fire department, there were four fires to which the department responded. In the first two there was no damage, in the third $35 damage and in the fourth in which the Wurttemberg school burned down there was $30,000 damage. For their services firemen received $32.

The report of the police department showed that there were 11 arrests made for the past month, of which three were discharged, two fined and two forfeited. Total fines and forfeits yielded $34.

Contagious cases for the past month in Ellwood City, according to the board of health, were: one of mumps, one of German measles, 35 of chickenpox and nine of scarlet fever.

Upon motion of Councilman Russell T. Sittler, council voted to reject all previous bids for the providing of a 1934 model police car for the borough and readvertise. The suggestion of Councilman William McGilincy that the advertising begin as soon as possible was also accepted. It was pointed out that a new police car is very much in need.

President Alex Main urged the finance committee to be seriously considering a salary schedule for borough employees and the budget for 1934. Council is to hold a special meeting next Thursday evening at 7:30 in the city building, upon request of Burgess J. C. Turner. By this time they will have a definite knowledge on how the special municipal election turned out, and will thus be able to discuss the new budget and salary schedule more clearly.

Mrs. A. P. Hazen Pleasing Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—With pleasing hospitality Mrs. A. P. Hazen opened her home at Frisco yesterday to members of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church at North Sewickley. Thirteen members and six special guests, Mrs. Edith Warren and Mrs. Charles Kline of New Brighton; Mrs. Keith Hazen, Mrs. Lester Hazen, Mrs. Sarah Wahn and Miss Gladys McDaniel all of this vicinity attended.

The hostess assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Jennie Jones, served a delicious menu at noon.

Mrs. S. G. Hazen invited the members to be guests at her home for the next meeting on Thursday, March 9, when an election of officers will be held.

More CWA Work Is Approved By Borough Council

Fourteen New Projects To Be Presented To Lawrence County Administrator

IMPROVEMENTS ARE PLANNED IN CITY

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—Ellwood City borough council does not intend to be caught flatfooted when additional funds are appropriated to the CWA, and so last night at their regular meeting approved 14 new projects which will be presented to County Administrator L. B. Round for approval as soon as possible. So soon as funds are available work will be ready to start immediately in Ellwood City.

The projects were approved last night following the recommendations of the street and sewer committee, which had studied the situation, and with their recommendations presented an estimate of the cost of the projects to the borough, which will be $8,155.87.

The proposed projects will improve Ellwood City in every way. Roads and alleys will be graded or paved, sewers will be laid so there will be more sanitation, and various improvements will be made in Ewing Park that will be a delight to picnickers in the summer time.

One of the chief improvements will be the laying of a Pinchot road on Bridge street to Wampum avenue to the north borough line in the fourth ward here. The county commissioners have been after the local council to make this improvement for some time. A similar improvement will be on Summit avenue to the Brighton road to Fifth street.

Another notable event will be the laying of the Johnson run drainage sewer which will be connected with the new Ewing Park sewage disposal system.

The improvements in Ewing Park will include the building of two storm shelter houses in the picnic grove that will take care of between 200 and 300 people. They will be built in an L shape. Each will have gas, water, drinking fountains and hot plate facilities to accommodate picnickers.

Chairman of the Street Committee Thomas A. Wilson announced that Borough Manager L. W. Monroe and himself have been over the city investigating the sidewalks, and as a result made several recommendations to council which were accepted. This included making a general check-up of all sidewalks and having repairs made wherever necessary. Also it was decided to have all property owners notified to remove all trees which are in the way of sidewalks or roads.

The street committee was delegated to rename streets having duplicate names, and suggest new ones for those having none. It was also instructed to see to the possibilities of continuing an alley in the fifth ward east to the old Harmony right of way.

One of the 14 projects approved by council last night included painting of a number of signs about the city to guide motorists.

The complete list of projects presented and approved last night were as follows:

Ellwood Invades Butler Tonight

Blue And White Hopes To Take Measure Of Heinzer Men In Return Battle

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—A rejuvenated Ellwood high basketball team will invade Butler tonight for a return battle with Coach Regis Heinzer's Butler high passers. The locals are quite provoked at the drubbing the soap miners administered them in their first meeting here and are out to even matters up.

The blue and white having their full same team which played in the previous game, is confident that they will give a much better showing tonight than in their first encounter. Butler will have three new faces in the line-up. The Tubers are just beginning to click and are due to hit their full stride.

Coach "Ganz" Benedict is expected to start the same line-up that he has used in the past several games. This will include Robuck and Latiano at the forwards, Bunney and McFadden at the guards and Lamenzo, center.

The reserves of both schools will play the preliminary game.

Rotary Club Has Lincoln Program

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—Members of the Ellwood City Rotary club enjoyed a fine program in observance of Lincoln's birthday, at their regular meeting last night in the First Presbyterian church.

The feature of the program was an address on the life of Abraham Lincoln by Miss Marie Christley, head of the history department of the local high school. Miss Christley is considered an authority on historical facts here. Her talk was very instructive and entertaining.

Next week the club will enjoy an opera as presented by the pupils of Miss Josephine Himpsey of the local school system. It will be Ladies' Night.

Mary Pollock Class Has Afternoon Tea

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—One of the most enjoyable events of Thursday took place at the home of Mrs. Mary French at Wurttemberg when members of Mary Pollock class of Wurttemberg M. E. church assembled for an afternoon tea.

A program featuring various numbers was presented after which the hours were spent informally with games and chat as the diversions. Tea and other refreshments were then served the twenty-five guests attending by the hostess assisted by Mrs. John Kimpel, Mrs. John Boots and Mrs. A. J. Musselman.

The street committee was delegated to rename streets having duplicate names, and suggest new ones for those having none. It was also instructed to see to the possibilities of continuing an alley in the fifth ward east to the old Harmony right of way.

One of the 14 projects approved by council last night included painting of a number of signs about the city to guide motorists.

Shelby League Plays Tonight

Inspection To Meet Finishing 2 In First Game; Finishing 1 To Meet Office

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—The Shelby inter-department basketball league will swing into action for the second time of its new half tonight at the Shelby auditorium.

The strong inspection team will meet the Finishing No. 2, which has yet to win its first victory, in the first game. Immediately after the first half winners, Finishing No. 1, will endeavor to redeem themselves for last Monday's showing by making every effort to defeat the Office in the second game. The first game will begin at 7:30.

Mrs. Hereford Is Charming Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—Mrs. James Hereford opened her home on Fourth street last night with charming hospitality to the members of the Semi-Monthly Bridge Club.

Those present thoroughly enjoyed the evening around two tables of bridge, at the close of which Mrs. Robert Hutchins and Mrs. Berwick Barton were presented with the high score awards.

An added feature was the serving of a luncheon by the hostess at a later hour. Mrs. Leo Mason invited the club to meet at her home on Spring avenue in two weeks for its next regular meeting.

Past Chiefs Club Gathers Thursday

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—Mrs. John Stoner was hostess to the Past Chiefs club of the Pythian Sisters last night at her home in Wurttemberg.

A delicious sauer kraut dinner was served at 6:30 at one table with covers laid for 16, including two guests, the Misses Vern and Irene McKim.

An informal social time was enjoyed after the dinner. The next meeting of the club will take place on the second Thursday of March at the home of Mrs. Delta Williams on Wayne avenue.

The hostess last evening was assisted in serving by her daughter, Babe.

Ace High Club Has Regular Meeting

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 9.—Regular meeting was held by the Ace High club last night at the home of Miss Esther James on Todd avenue. Mrs. Albert Snyder and Mrs. Nell Knally were special guests.

Mrs. Kenneth Parker and Mrs. Kenneth Gunnnett won the bridge awards at the close of two tables at play. The closing event of the evening was the serving of a luncheon by the hostess with the assistance of Mrs. Snyder.

The club is expected to meet again in two weeks.

Mass Execution Of Five Negroes

Five Are Executed In Alabama On Charges Of Murder

By ROBERT G. NIXON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

KILBY PRISON, MONTGOMERY, Ala., Feb. 9.—"Oh, yes, I'm gwine up gwine up, gwine all de way Lord, I'm gwine up, gwine up to see de heavenly lan'..."

Chanting their way into eternity, five cotton field Negroes who forsook the simple ways of the southern rural folk and slew ruthlessly in outbursts of jungle madness, went to their death in the grim Kilby prison's electric chair early today.

They died like men, these five murderers, in a fervor of religious zeal and without murmured complaint on their lips as swift Alabama justice exacted the toll of a life for a life in a mass execution unparalleled in modern times.

The first of the condemned men walked into the tiny execution cubicle at 12:05 a. m. (C. S. T.) forty-seven minutes later, their lives snuffed out by recurrent 2,500-volt charges of man-made lightning in almost exact ten-minute intervals, the five lay dead in newly made rough pine coffins in the corridor outside.

Two, whose crimes were most brutal, said they were innocent in last-minute statements as the black mask dropped, but there was no bitterness nor hint of recrimination in their voices. The others died murmuring farewells to the men the law had decreed should take their lives.

Singers From Here Are Asked To Join Warren Eisteddfod

Committee Asks For Two Or Three Choirs From Here; Other News Of Welsh

By WILLIAM A. JOHNS
Brython

George Bundy, and the committee of the Warren Eisteddfod, is very anxious to secure two or three choirs from this city to compete at their eisteddfod on May 7. Choirs will be coming from Cleveland, East Liverpool, Pittsburgh and many other cities. The committee is looking for New Castle singers to turn out for the event. It may be that something will be done in the next few weeks.

Griffith Thomas, of Park avenue, will occupy the pulpit of the Emmanuel Baptist church next Sunday evening at 7:30. Singers of the church will render solos. A large crowd is expected to be present.

Welsh people of the South Side are very proud of the success of the young man, Frank Phillips, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips, of East Reynolds street, in his business career. Ten months ago he was made district manager of Butler by the Colonial Insurance Company, and this week he has been transferred back to New Castle as manager of the company in this city. He will move to his former home in this city this week.

Prof. Richard E. Johns, of Park avenue has returned home after a visit with his son, Sherwood Johns, a student at Bethany College, W. Va. He will be graduated this year.

News is still coming from our friend, William C. Jenkins, Delaware avenue, telling that he is having the best time of his life. One day he enjoyed a very nice dinner with Prof. Joseph Johns, a schoolmaster at Morrilton and a brother to Brython.

Mrs. William J. Davies has returned to her home in Florida after a short visit to New Castle attending the funeral of her late sister, Mrs. David Lewis, who was buried on Saturday.

WEATHER FACTOR

HARRISBURG, Feb. 9.—Poor weather and road conditions, the Bureau of Highway Patrol and Safety reports, play only a minor part in automobile accidents. Out of 45,374 accidents last year, 34,259 occurred when the weather was clear, and 32,460 occurred on dry roads.

POORHOUSE RULES

HARRISBURG, Feb. 9.—For the sake of argument, this writer wants a book of rules about poorhouses. From Shamokin he wrote the Department of Revenue: "Would you please send me a book of rules of our almshouse. I would be pleased if I could receive one. They settle many arguments which we have in our idle time."

VENDOL HELPS N. CASTLE MAN AND NOW DAUGHTER TAKES IT

He suffered for years from sluggish liver and constipation; was dizzy and his stomach filled with gas. Says Vendol relieved him quickly.

"I couldn't wish for better results than Vendol and the little laxative tablets have given me since I began taking them about two weeks ago," said Mr. John Fleeger, residing on Route 7, Bryson Road, New Castle, who has been in the employ of the Standard Steel Car Shop since 1907 and is highly regarded by this company.

"At times I suffered from sharp pains in my shoulders and arms, but I think my main trouble came from a sluggish liver. I would have attacks of dizziness which, even though short, were very bothersome while they lasted. I was also troubled with constipation and during the last three weeks this has been especially bad; at this time I have taken various remedies for it. My stomach was weak and after meals I frequently suffered from sourness, a full bloated feeling from gas, and heartburn.

"I was attracted to Vendol by what I read in the newspapers, so started taking this new medicine about two weeks ago, and I do not hesitate to say that it has done me a lot of good. I find that my bowels act regularly, my liver seems to have been stimulated. I haven't had a dizzy feeling lately. I also notice that the gas and sourness in my stomach is much better, and pains in my arms and shoulders have about passed away.

"I really think that Vendol is a good remedy and no one will make a mistake by giving it a trial."

Soon after taking Vendol it is noticed that the bowels become free and easy, the excess bile is eliminated, headaches disappear, nerves become steady so that sleep is sound and refreshed. The entire system seems to be rejuvenated and soon you will feel like a different person.

Come to the New Castle Drug Company, 31 East Washington Street, and ask for me, the Vendol Man, and I will tell you all about this splendid new medicine, and explain how it will help you. Vendol is sold at the 24 North Mill Street store also.
